63 Now the men that had him in custody began to make fun of him, hitting him; 64 and after covering him over they would ask and say: "Prophesy. Who is it that struck you?" 65 And they went on saying many other things in blasphemy against him.

66 At length when it became day, the assembly of older men of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they haled him into their San'he drin hall, saying: 67 "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them: "Even if I told you, you would not believe it at all. 68 Moreover, if I questioned you, you would not answer at all. 69 However, from now on the Son of man will be sitting at the powerful right hand of God." 70 At this they all said: "Are you, therefore, the Son of God?" He said to them: "You yourselves are saying that I am." 71 They said: "Why do we need further witness? For we ourselves have heard [it] out of his own mouth."

23 So the multitude of them rose, one and all, and led him to Pilate. 2 Then they started to accuse him, saying: "This man we Caesar and saying he himself is [it]." 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds: "I find no crime in this man." 5 But they began to be insistent, saying: "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Ju de'a, even starting out from Gal'i-lee to here." 6 On hearing that, Pilate asked whether the man was a Gal·i·le'an, 7 and, after ascertaining that he he sent him on to Herod, who demand to be met: 25 he released

13 Pilate then called the chief priests and the rulers and the people together 14 and said to them: "You brought this man to me as one inciting the people to revolt, and, look! I examined him in front of you but found in this man no ground for the charges you are bringing against him. 15 In fact, neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us: and, look! nothing deserving of death has been committed by him. 16 I will therefore chastise him and release him." 17 - 18 But with their whole multitude they cried out, saying: found subverting our nation and "Take this one away, but release forbidding the paying of taxes to Bar-ab'bas to us!" 19 (Which [man] had been thrown into prison Christ a king." 3 Now Pilate asked for a certain sedition occurring in him the question: "Are you the the city and for murder.) 20 Again king of the Jews?" 12 After this he and his mother and brothers and his disciples went down to Ca per'na um, but they did not stay there many days.

13 Now the passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And he found in the temple those selling cattle and sheep and doves and the money brokers in their seats. 15 So, after making a whip of ropes, he drove all those with the sheep and cattle out of the temple, and he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. 16 And he said to those selling the doves: "Take these things away from here! Stop making the house of my Father a house of merchandise!" 17 His disciples called to mind

18 Therefore, in answer, the Jews said to him: "What sign have you 3 When the wine ran short the to show us, since you are doing these things?" 19 In answer Jesus or three liquid measures. 7 Jesus disciples called to mind that he the Scripture and the saying that 13 Moreover, no man has ascended Jesus said.

23 However, when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, at its festival, many people put their faith in his name, viewing his signs that he was performing. 24 But Jesus himself was not entrusting himself to them because of his knowing them all 25 and because he was in no need to have anyone bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

3 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, Nic.o.de'mus was his name, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This one came to him in the night and said to him: "Rabbi, we know that you as a teacher have come from God: for no one can perform these signs that you perform unless God is with him." 3 In answer Jesus said to him: "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.' 4 Nic·o·de'mus said to him: "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter into the womb of his mother a second time and be born, can he?" 5 Jesus answered: "Most truly I say to you, Unless anyone is born from water and spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. 6 What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel because I told you. You people must be born again. 8 The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone that has been born from the spirit."

9 In answer Nic-o-de'mus said to him: "How can these things come about?" 10 In answer Jesus said to him: "Are you a teacher of Israel and yet do not know these things? 11 Most truly I say to you. What we know we speak and what we have seen we bear witness of, but you people do not receive the witness we give. 12 If I have told you earthly things and yet you do not believe, how will you believe single thing unless it has been used to say this; and they believed if I tell you heavenly things? into heaven but he that descended from heaven, the Son of man, 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so the Son of man must be lifted up, 15 that everyone believing in him may have everlasting life.

> 16 "For God loved the world so much that he gave his onlybegotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent forth his Son into the world, not for him to judge the world, but for the world to be saved through him. 18 He that exercises faith in him is not to be judged. He that does not exercise faith has been judged already, because he has not exercised faith in the name of the onlybegotten Son of God. 19 Now this is the basis for judgment, that the light has come into the world but men have loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were wicked. 20 For he that practices vile things hates the light and does not come to the light, in order that his works may not be reproved. 21 But he that does what is true comes to the light, in order that his works may be made manifest as having been worked in harmony with God."

> 22 After these things Jesus and his disciples went into Ju-de'an country, and there he spent some time with them and did baptizing. 23 But John also was baptizing in Ae'non near Sa'lim, because there was a great quantity of water there, and people kept coming and being baptized: 24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison,

> 25 Therefore a dispute arose on the part of the disciples of John with a Jew concerning purification. 26 So they came to John and said to him: "Rabbi, the man that was with you across the Jordan, to whom you have borne witness, see, this one is baptizing and all are going to him." 27 In answer John said: "A man cannot receive a

However, the friend of the bridegroom, when he stands and hears him, has a great deal of joy on account of the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore this joy of mine has been made full. 30 That one must go on increasing, but I must go on decreasing."

31 He that comes from above is over all others. He that is from the earth is from the earth and speaks of things of the earth. He that comes from heaven is over all others. 32 What he has seen and heard, of this he bears witness, but no man is accepting his witness. 33 He that has accepted his witness has put his seal to it that God is true. 34 For the one whom God sent forth speaks the sayings of God, for he does not give the spirit by measure. 35 The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. 36 He that exercises faith in the Son has everlasting life; he that disobeys the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains upon him.

From what source, therefore, do you have this living water? 12 You are not greater than our forefather Jacob, who gave us the well and who himself together with his sons and his cattle drank out of it, are you?" 13 In answer Jesus said to her: "Everyone drinking from this water will get thirsty again. 14 Whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty at all, but the water that I will give him will become in him a fountain of water bubbling up to impart everlasting life." 15 The woman said to him: "Sir, give me this water, so that I may neither thirst nor keep coming over to this place to draw water."

16 He said to her: "Go, call your husband and come to this place." 17 In answer the woman said: "I do not have a husband." Jesus said to her: "You said well, 'A husband I do not have.' 18 For you have had five husbands, and the [man] you now have is not your husband. This you have said truthfully." 19 The woman said to him: "Sir, I perceive you are a prophet, 20 Our forefathers worshiped in this mountain; but you people say that in Jerusalem is the place where persons ought to worship." 21 Jesus said to her: "Believe me, woman. 19 Therefore, in answer, Jesus went on to say to them: "Most truly I say to you, The Son cannot do a single thing of his own initiative, but only what he beholds the Father doing. For whatever things that One does, these things the Son also does in like manner. 20 For the Father has affection for the Son and shows him all the things he himself does, and he will show him works greater than these, in order that you may marvel. 21 For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. 22 For the Father judges no one at all, but he has committed all the judging to the Son, 23 in order that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He that does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. 24 Most truly I say to you, He that hears my word and believes him that sent me has everlasting life, and he does not come into judgment but has passed over from death to life.

They said to him: "Lord. come and see." 35 Jesus gave way to tears, 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: "See, what affection salem at a distance of about two he used to have for him!" 37 But some of them said: "Was not this [man] that opened the eyes of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?"

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning now he must smell, for it is "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me: but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth." 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Laz'a rus, come on about with a cloth. Ca'ia phas. who was high priest that year, said to them: "You do not know anything at all, 50 and you do not reason out that it is to your benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people and not for the whole nation to be destroyed." 51 This, though, he did not say of his own originality; but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was destined to die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but in order that the children of God who are scattered about he might also gather together in one. 53 Therefore from that day on they took counsel to kill him.

Laz'a · rus was one of those reclining quently the chief priests and the at the table with him, 3 Mary, therefore, took a pound of perfumed oil, genuine nard, very costly, and she greased the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet dry with her hair. The house became filled with the scent of the perfumed oil. 4 But Judas Is-car'i-ot, one of his disciples, who was about to betray him, said: 5 "Why was it this perfumed oil was not sold for three hundred de nar'i and given to the poor people?" 6 He said this, though, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief and had the money box and used to carry off the monies put in it. 7 Therefore Jesus said: "Let her alone, that she may keep this observance in view of the day of my burial. 8 For you have the poor always with you. but me you will not have always."

9 Therefore a great crowd of the Jews got to know he was there, and they came, not on account of Jesus only, but also to see Laz'a rus, whom he raised up from the dead. 54 Hence Jesus no longer walked 10 The chief priests now took counsel to kill Laz'a rus also, 11 because on account of him many of the Jews were going there and

Who is this Son of man?" 35 Jesus therefore said to them: "The light will be among while you have the light, so that darkness does not overpower you: and he that walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. therefore, approached Philip who 36 While you have the light, exercise faith in the light, in order to become sons of light."

Jesus spoke these things and went off and hid from them. 37 But although he had performed so many signs before them, they were not putting faith in him, 38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled which he said: "Jehovah, who has put faith in the thing heard by us? And as for the arm of Jehovah, to whom one [grain]; but if it dies, it then has it been revealed?" 39 The bears much fruit. 25 He that is reason why they were not able to 40 "He has blinded their eyes and he has made their hearts hard, that they should not see with their eyes and get the thought with their hearts and turn around and I should heal them." 41 Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory, and he spoke about him. 42 All the same, many even of the rulers actually put faith in him, but because of the Pharisees they would not confess [him], in order not to be expelled from the synaof men more than even the glory

I bring him outside to you in order for you to know I find no fault in him." 5 Accordingly Jesus came outside, wearing the thorny crown and the purple outer garment. And he said to them: "Look! The man!" 6 However, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying: "Impale [him]! Impale [him]!" Pilate said to them: "Take him yourselves and impale him, for I do not find any fault 20 Therefore many of the Jews in him." 7 The Jews answered him: "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself God's son."

8 When, therefore, Pilate heard this saying, he became more fearful: 9 and he entered into the governor's palace again and said to Jesus: "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Hence Pilate said to him: "Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know I have authority to release you and I have authority to impale you?" 11 Jesus answered him: "You would have no authority at all against me unless it had been granted to you from above. This is why the man that handed me over to you has greater sin,"

12 For this reason Pilate kept on seeking how to release him. But the Jews shouted, saying: "It you release this [man], you are not a friend of Caesar. Every man making himself a king speaks against Caesar." 13 Therefore Pilate, after hearing these words, brought Jesus outside, and he sat down on a judgment seat in a place called The Stone Pavement, but, in Hebrew, Gab'ba tha. 14 Now it was preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews: "See! Your king!" 15 However, they shouted: "Take [him] away! Take [him] away! Impale him!" | mother!" And from that hour on

Then they took charge of Jesus. 17 And, bearing the torture stake for himself, he went out to the socalled Skull Place, which is called Gol'go tha in Hebrew: 18 and there they impaled him, and two other [men] with him, one on this side and one on that, but Jesus in the middle. 19 Pilate wrote a title also and put it on the torture stake. It was written: "Jesus the Naz-arene' the King of the Jews." read this title, because the place where Jesus was impaled was near the city: and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek. 21 However, the chief priests of the Jews began to say to Pilate: "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but that he said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered: "What I have written I have written."

23 Now when the soldiers had impaled Jesus, they took his outer garments and made four parts, for each soldier a part, and the inner garment. But the inner garment was without a seam, being woven from the top throughout its length. 24 Therefore they said to one another: "Let us not tear it, but let us determine by lots over it whose it will be." This was that the scripture might be fulfilled: "They apportioned my outer garments among themselves, and upon my apparel they cast lots." And so the soldiers really did these things.

25 By the torture stake of Jesus, however, there were standing his mother and the sister of his mother; Mary the wife of Clo'pas, and Mary Mag'da-lene. 26 Therefore Jesus, seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing by, said to his mother: "Woman, see! your son!" 27 Next he said to the disciple: "See! 28 After this, when Jesus knew that by now all things had been accomplished, in order that the in the garden a new memorial scripture might be accomplished he said: "I am thirsty." 29 A vessel was sitting there full of sour wine. Therefore they put a sponge full Jews, they laid Jesus, because the of the sour wine upon a hyssop stalk and brought it to his mouth. 30 When, now, he had received the sour wine, Jesus said: "It has been accomplished!" and, bowing his head, he delivered up [his] spirit.

31 Then the Jews, since it was Preparation, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the torture stakes on the sabbath, (for the day of that sabbath was a great one.) requested Pilate to have their legs broken and the bodies taken away, 32 The soldiers came, therefore, and broke the legs of the first [man] and those of the other [man] that had been impaled with him. 33 But on coming to Jesus. as they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34 Yet one of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And he that has seen [it] has 6 Then Simon Peter also came borne witness, and his witness is true, and that man knows he tells true things, in order that you also may believe. 36 In fact, these things took place in order for the scripture to be fulfilled: "Not a bone of his will be crushed." 37 And, again, a different scripture says: "They will look to the One whom they pierced."

20 On the first day of the week Mary Mag'da lene came to the memorial tomb early, while there was still darkness, and she beheld the stone already taken away from the memorial tomb. 2 Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, for whom Jesus had affection, and she said to them: "They have taken away the Lord out of the memorial tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

3 Then Peter and the other disciple went out and started for the memorial tomb. 4 Yes, the two together began to run: but the other disciple ran ahead of Peter with greater speed and reached the memorial tomb first. 5 And, stooping forward, he beheld the bandages lying, yet he did not go in. following him, and he entered into the memorial tomb. And he viewed the bandages lying, 7 also the cloth that had been upon his head not lying with the bandages but separately rolled up in one place. 8 At that time, therefore, the other disciple who had reached the memorial tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed. 9 For they did not yet discern the scripture have taken my Lord away, and I I do not know where they have laid him." 14 After saying these things, she turned back and viewed Jesus standing, but she did not discern it was Jesus. 15 Jesus said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" She, imagining it was the gardener, said to him: "Sir, if you you have laid him, and I will take "Mary!" Upon turning around, she said to him, in Hebrew: "Rab bo'ni!" (which means "Teacher!") 17 Jesus said to her: "Stop clinging to me. For I have not yet ascended to the Father. But be on your way to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and Your Father and to my God and YOUR God.'" 18 Mary Mag'da lene came and brought the news to the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" and that he said these things to her.

19 Therefore, when it was late on that day, the first of the week. and, although the doors were locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them: "May you have peace." 20 And after he said this he showed them both his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord. 21 Jesus, therefore, said to them again; "May you have peace. Just as the Father has sent me forth, I also am sending you." 22 And after he said this he blew upon them and said to them: "Receive holy spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any persons, they stand forgiven to them: if you retain those of any persons, they stand retained."

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, who was called The Twin. was not with them when Jesus came. 25 Consequently the other disciples would say to him: "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them: "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails and stick my finger into the print of the nails and stick my hand into his side, I will certainly not believe."

26 Well, eight days later his disciples were again indoors, and Thomas with them, Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and he stood in their midst and said: "May you have peace." 27 Next he said to Thomas: "Put your finger here, and see my hands, and take your hand and stick it into my side, and stop being unbelieving have carried him off, tell me where but become believing." 28 In answer Thomas said to him: "My him away." 16 Jesus said to her: Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus said to him: "Because you have seen me have you believed? Happy are those who do not see and yet believe."

> 30 To be sure, Jesus performed many other signs also before the disciples, which are not written down in this scroll. 31 But these have been written down that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God, and that, because of believing, you may have life by means of his name.

> 21 After these things dead to the ifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti be'ri as; but he made the manifestation in this way. 2 There were in company Simon Peter and Thomas, who was called The Twin, and Na than'a el from Ca'na of Gal'ilee and the sons of Zeb'e dee and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter said to them: "I am going fishing." They said to him: "We also are coming with you." Out they went and got aboard the boat, but during that night they caught nothing.

4 However, just as it was getting to be morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not, of course, discern that it was Jesus. 5 Then Jesus said to them: "Young children, you do not have anything to eat, do you?" They answered "No!" to him. 6 He said to them: "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find [some]." Then they cast it, but they were no longer able to draw it in because of the multitude of the fishes. 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus used to love said to

15 When, now, they had breakfasted, Jesus said to Simon Peter: "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you." He said to him: "Feed my lambs." 16 Again he said to him, a second time: "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you." now while the day of the [fes-Lival of Pentecost was in progress they were all together at the same place, 2 and suddenly there occurred from heaven a noise just like that of a rushing stiff breeze, and it filled the whole house in which they were sitting. 3 And tongues as if of fire became visible to them and were distributed about, and one sat upon each one of them, 4 and they all became filled with holy spirit and started to speak with different tongues. just as the spirit was granting them

5 However, a certain man, An-ani'as by name, together with Sap·phi'ra his wife, sold a possession 2 and secretly held back some of the price, his wife also knowing about it, and he brought just a part and deposited it at the feet of the apostles. 3 But Peter said: "An·a·ni'as, why has Satan emboldened you to play false to the holy spirit and to hold back secretly some of the price of the field? 4 As long as it remained with you did it not remain yours, and after it was sold did it not continue in your control? Why was it that you purposed such a deed as this in your heart? You have played false, not to men, but to God." 5 On hearing these words An·a·ni'as fell down and expired. And great fear came over all those hearing of it. 6 But the younger men rose. wrapped him in cloths, and carried him out and buried him.

7 Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter said to her: "Tell me, did you [two] sell the field for so much?" She said: "Yes, for so much." 9 So Peter said to her: "Why was it agreed upon between you [two] to make a test of the spirit of Jehovah? Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 Instantly she fell down at his feet and expired. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her alongside her husband. 11 Consequently great fear came over the whole congregation and over all those hearing about these things.

12 Moreover, through the hands of the apostles many signs and portents continued to occur among the people; and they were all with one accord in Sol'o mon's colonothers had the courage to join himself to them; nevertheless, the people were extolling them. 14 More than that, believers in the Lord both of men and of women: 15 so that they brought the sick out even into the broad ways and laid them there upon little beds and cots, in order that, as Peter would go by, at least his shadow might fall upon some one of them. 16 Also, the multitude from the cities around Jerusalem kept coming together, bearing sick people and those troubled with unclean spirits, and they would one and all be cured, and objection on or meets

17 But the high priest and all those with him, the then existing sect of the Sadducees, rose and became filled with jealousy. 18 and they laid hands upon the apostles and put them in the public place of custody. 19 But during the night Jehovah's angel opened the doors of the prison, brought them out and said: 20 "Be on YOUR way, and, having taken a stand in the temple, keep on speaking to the people all the sayings about this life." 21 After hearing this, they entered into the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the Sanhe drin and the assembly of older men of the sons of Israel, and they sent out to the jail to have them brought. 22 But when the officers got there they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and made report, 23 saying: "The jail we found locked with all security and the guards standing at the doors, but on opening up we found no one inside." 24 Well, when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they fell into a quandary over these matters as to what this would come to. 25 But a certain man arrived and reported cumstances. I say to you, Do not to them: "Look! The men you meddle with these men, but let put in the prison are in the temple. standing and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went off with his officers and proceeded to bring them, but without violence, as they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

27 So they brought them and stood them in the San'he-drin hall. And the high priest questioned them 28 and said: "We positively ordered you not to keep teaching upon the basis of this name, and yet, look! you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you are determined to bring the blood of this man upon us." 29 In answer Peter and the [other] apostles said: "We must obey God as ruler rather than men. 30 The God of our forefathers raised up Jesus. whom you slew, hanging him upon a stake. 31 God exalted this one as Chief Agent and Savior to his right hand, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32 And we are witnesses of these Hebrew-speaking Jews, because matters, and so is the holy spirit, which God has given to those obeying him as ruler."

41 These, therefore, went their way from before the San'he-drin, rejoicing because they had been counted worthy to be dishonored in behalf of his name. 42 And every day in the temple and from house to house they continued without letup teaching and declaring the good news about the Christ. Jesus.

54 Well, at hearing these things they felt cut to their hearts and began to gnash their teeth at him. 55 But he, being full of holy spirit, gazed into heaven and caught sight of God's glory and of Jesus standing at God's right hand, 56 and he said: "Look! I behold the heavstanding at God's right hand." 57 At this they cried out at the top of the voice and put their hands over their ears and rushed upon him with one accord. 58 And after throwing him outside the city. they began casting stones at him. And the witnesses laid down their outer garments at the feet of a young man called Saul. 59 And they went on casting stones at Stephen as he made appeal and said: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit," 60 Then, bending his knees, he cried out with a strong voice: "Jeagainst them." And after saying this he fell asleep [in death].

On that day great persecution that was in Jerusalem: all except the apostles were scattered throughout the regions of Ju-de'a and Sa·mar'i.a. 2 But reverent men carried Stephen to the burial, and they made a great lamentation over him. 3 Saul, though, began to deal outrageously with the congregation. Invading one house after another and, dragging out both men and women, he would turn them over to prison.

4 However, those who had been scattered went through the land declaring the good news of the word, 5 Philip, for one, went down to the city of Sa mar'i.a and began to preach the Christ to them. 6 With one accord the crowds were paying attention to the things said by Philip while they ing the coming of the righteous listened and looked at the signs he was performing. 7 For there were many that had unclean spirits. and these would cry out with a loud mitted by angels but have not voice and come out. Moreover, many that were paralyzed and lame were cured. 8 So there came to be a great deal of joy in that city.

9 Now in the city there was a certain man named Simon, who, prior to this, had been practicing magical arts and amazing the nation of Sa·mar'i·a, saving he himself was somebody great. 10 And ens opened up and the Son of man all of them, from the least to the greatest, would pay attention to him and say: "This man is the Power of God, which can be called Great." 11 So they would pay attention to him because of his having amazed them for quite a while by his magical arts. 12 But when they believed Philip, who was declaring the good news of the kingdom of God and of the name of Jesus Christ, they proceeded to be baptized, both men and women. 13 Simon himself also became a believer, and, after being baptized. he was in constant attendance upon hovah, do not charge this sin Philip; and he was amazed at beholding great signs and powerful works taking place.

14 When the apostles in Jeru-land join yourself to this chariot." salem heard that Sa mar'i a had 30 Philip ran alongside and heard accepted the word of God, they dispatched Peter and John to them: 15 and these went down and praved actually know what you are readfor them to get holy spirit. 16 For ing?" 31 He said: "Really, how it had not yet fallen upon any one could I ever do so, unless someone of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they went laving their hands upon them, and they began to receive holy spirit.

18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the spirit was given, he offered them money. 19 saying: "Give me also this authority, that anyone upon whom I lay my hands may receive holy spirit." 20 But Peter said to him: "May your silver perish with you, because you thought through money to get possession of the free gift of God. 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not straight in the sight of God. 22 Repent, therefore, of this badness of yours, and supplicate Jehovah that, if possible, the device of your heart may be forgiven you: 23 for I see you are a poisonous gall and a bond of unrighteousness." 24 In answer Simon said: "You men, make supplication for me to Jehovah that none of the things you have said may come upon me."

25 Therefore, when they had given the witness thoroughly and had spoken the word of Jehovah. they turned back to Jerusalem, and they went declaring the good news to many villages of the Sa·mar'-

26 However, Jehovah's angel spoke to Philip, saving: "Rise and go to the south to the road that runs down from Jerusalem to Ga'za." And he entreated Philip to get on and sit down with him. 32 Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading aloud was this: "As a sheep he was brought to the slaughter, and as a lamb that is voiceless before its shearer. so he does not open his mouth. 33 During his humiliation the judgment was taken away from him. Who will tell the details of his generation? Because his life is taken away from the earth."

34 In answer the eunuch said to Philip: "I beg you, About whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about some other man?" 35 Philip opened his mouth and. starting with this Scripture, he declared to him the good news about Jesus. 36 Now as they were going over the road, they came to a certain body of water, and the eunuch said: "Look! A body of water: what prevents me from getting baptized?" 37 --- 38 With that he commanded the chariot to halt, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 When they had come up out of the water. Jehovah's spirit quickly led Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any more, for he kept going on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found to be in Ash'dod, and he went through the territory and kept on declaring the good news to all the cities until he got to Caes·a·re'a.

A But Saul, still breathing threat and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, in order that he might bring bound to Jerusalem any whom he found who belonged to The Way, both 32 Now as Peter was going through all [parts] he came down also to the holy ones that dwelt in Lvd'da. 33 There he found a certain man named Ae ne'as, who had been lying flat on his cot for eight years, as he was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him: "Ae ne'as, Jesus Christ heals you, Rise and make up your bed." And he rose immediately. 35 And all those who inhabited Lyd'da and the [plain of] Shar'on saw him, and these turned to the Lord.

36 But in Jop'pa there was a certain disciple named Tab'i.tha, which, when translated, means Dor'cas. She abounded in good deeds and gifts of mercy that she was rendering, 37 But in those days she happened to fall sick and die. So they bathed her and laid her in an upper chamber. 38 Now as Lyd'da was near Jop'pa, when the disciples heard that Peter was in this city they dispatched two men to him to entreat [him]: "Please do not hesitate to come on as far as us." 39 At that Peter rose and went with them. And when he arrived, they led him up into the upper chamber; and all the widows presented themselves to him weeping and exhibiting many inner garments and outer garments that Dor'cas used to make while she was with them. 40 But Peter put ities upon the earth; 12 and in it everybody outside and, bending his there were all sorts of four-footed knees, he prayed, and, turning to the body, he said: "Tab'i.tha, rise!" She opened her eyes and, as she caught sight of Peter, she Peter, slaughter and eat!" 14 But sat up. 41 Giving her his hand, he raised her up, and he called the holy ones and the widows and presented her alive. 42 This became known throughout all Jop'pa. and many became believers on the filed the things God has cleansed." together with all his household, and he made many gifts of mercy to the people and made supplication to God continually. 3 Just about the ninth hour of the day he saw plainly in a vision an angel of God come in to him and say to him: "Cornelius!" 4 The man gazed at him and, becoming frightened, said: "What is it, Lord?" He said to him: "Your prayers and gifts of mercy have ascended as a remembrance before God. 5 So now send men to Jop'pa and summon a certain Simon who is surnamed Peter. 6 This man is being entertained by a certain Simon, a tanner, who has a house by the sea." 7 As soon as the angel that spoke to him had left, he called two of his house servants and a devout soldier from among those who were in constant attendance upon him, 8 and he related everything to them and dispatched them to Jop'pa.

9 The next day as they were pursuing their journey and were approaching the city. Peter went up to the housetop about the sixth hour to pray. 10 But he became very hungry and wanted to eat. While they were preparing, he fell into a trance 11 and beheld heaven opened and some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremcreatures and creeping things of the earth and birds of heaven. 13 And a voice came to him: "Rise, Peter said: "Not at all, Lord, because never have I eaten anything defiled and unclean." 15 And the voice [spoke] again to him, the second time: "You stop calling deup into heaven.

Then they requested him to he used to say, 'John, for his part, remain for some days.

Now the apostles and the brothers that were in Ju-de'a heard that people of the nations had also received the word of God. 2 So when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the [supporters] of circumcision began to contend with him. 3 saying he had gone into the house of men that were not circumcised and had eaten with them. 4 At this Peter commenced and went on to explain the particulars to them, saying:

5 "I was in the city of Jop'pa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, some sort of vessel descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four extremities from heaven, and it came clear to me. 6 Gazing into it, I made observations and saw four-footed creatures of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and birds of heaven. 7 I also heard a voice say to me, 'Rise, Peter, slaughter and eat!' 8 But I said. 'Not at all, Lord, because a defiled or unclean thing has never entered into my mouth.' 9 The second time the voice from heaven answered, 'You stop calling defiled the things God has cleansed.' 10 This occurred for a third time. and everything was pulled up again into heaven. 11 Also, look! at that instant there were three men stand- them all to continue in the Lord ing at the house in which we with hearty purpose; 24 for he

18 Now when they heard these things, they acquiesced, and they glorified God, saving: "Well, then, God has granted repentance for the purpose of life to people of the nations also."

19 Consequently those who had been scattered by the tribulation that arose over Stephen went through as far as Phoe ni'cia and Cy'prus and Antioch, but speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. 20 However, out of them there were some men of Cy'prus and Cy-re'ne that came to Antioch and began talking to the Greekspeaking people, declaring the good news of the Lord Jesus. 21 Furthermore, the hand of Jehovah was with them, and a great number that became believers turned to the Lord.

22 The account about them got to the ears of the congregation that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Bar'na bas as far as Antioch. 23 When he arrived and saw the undeserved kindness of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage were, they having been dispatched was a good man and full of holy came about that for a whole year they gathered together with them in the congregation and taught quite a crowd, and it was first in Antioch that the disciples were by divine providence called Christians.

27 Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Ag'a bus rose and proceeded to indicate through the spirit that a great famine was about to come upon the entire inhabited earth; which, know that Jehovah sent his angel for that matter, did take place in the time of Claudius. 29 So those of the disciples determined, each of them according as anyone could afford it, to send a relief ministration to the brothers dwelling in Ju·de'a: 30 and this they did, dispatching it to the older men by the hand of Bar'na bas and Saul.

About that particular time Herod the king applied his hands to mistreating some of those of the congregation. 2 He did away with James the brother of John by the sword. 3 As he saw it was pleasing to the Jews, he went on to arrest Peter also. (As it was, those were days of the unfermented cakes.) 4 And laving hold of him, he put him in prison. turning him over to four shifts of four soldiers each to guard him, as he intended to produce him for the people after the passover. 5 Consequently Peter was being kept in the prison: but prayer to God for him was being carried on intensely by the congregation.

12 And after he considered it. he went to the house of Mary the mother of John who was surnamed Mark, where quite a few were gathered together and praying. 13 When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda came to attend to the call, 14 and, upon recognizing the voice of Peter, out of joy she did not open the gate, but ran inside and reported that Peter was standing before the gateway. 15 They said to her: "You are mad." But she kept on strongly asserting it was so. They began to say: "It is his angel." 16 But Peter remained there knocking. When they opened, they saw him and were astonished. 17 But he motioned to them with his hand to be silent and told them in detail how Jehovah brought him out of the prison, and he said: "Report these things to James and the brothers." With that he went out and journeyed to another place.

18 Well, when it became day, before the door were keeping the there was no little stir among the soldiers over what really had begel stood by, and a light shone in come of Peter. 19 Herod made diligent search for him and, when the side, he roused him, saying: not finding him, he examined the "Rise quickly!" But Gal'li·o would not concern himself at all with these things.

18 However, after staying quite some days longer, Paul said goodby to the brothers and proceeded to sail away for Syria, and with him Pris cil'la and Aq'ui la, as he had the hair of his head clipped short in Cen'chre-ae, for he had a vow. 19 So they arrived at Eph'e-sus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the tism [in symbol] of repentance, Jews. 20 Although they kept requesting him to remain for a longer time, he would not consent 21 but Jesus." 5 On hearing this, they said good-by and told them: "I got baptized in the name of the will return to you again, if Je- Lord Jesus, 6 And when Paul

When Pris-cil'la and Ag'ui la heard him, they took him into their company and expounded the way of God more correctly to him. 27 Further, because he was desiring to go across into A.cha'ia, the brothers wrote the disciples, exhorting them to receive him kindly. So when he got there, he greatly helped those who had believed on account of God's undeserved kindness; 28 for with intensity he thoroughly proved the Jews to be wrong publicly, while he demonstrated by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 In the course of events, while A pollos was in Corinth, Paul A · pol'los was in Corinth, Paul went through the inland parts and came down to Eph'e sus, and found some disciples; 2 and he said to them: "Did you receive holy spirit when you became believers?" They said to him: "Why, we have never heard whether there is a holy spirit." 3 And he said: "In what, then, were you baptized?" They said: "In John's baptism." 4 Paul said: "John baptized with the baptelling the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in

17 "But when I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple. I fell into a trance 18 and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry up and get out of Jerusalem quickly, he let him loose and commanded because they will not agree to your witness concerning me.' 19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves well know that I used to imprison and flog in one synagogue after another those believing upon you: 20 and when the blood of Stephen your was also standing by and approving and guarding the outer garments of those doing away with him.' 21 And vet he said to me. 'Get on your way, because I shall send you out to nations far off."

22 Now they kept listening to him down to this word, and they raised their voices, saying: "Take such a [man] away from the earth, for he was not fit to live!" 23 And because they were crying out and throwing their outer garments about and tossing dust into the air, 24 the military commander ordered him to be brought into the soldiers' quarters and said he should be examined under scourging, that he might know fully for what cause they were shouting against him this way. 25 But when they had stretched him out for the whipping. Before Festus. Appeals to Caesar, Agrippa

13 Now when some days had passed, A grip'pa the king and Ber ni'ce arrived in Caes a re'a for a visit of courtesy to Festus. 14 So, as they were spending a number of days there, Festus laid before the king the matters respect-

22 Here A.grip'pa [said] to Fes-

A grip'pa and Ber ni'ce came with hoping to attain to the fulfillment into the audience chamber together with military commanders as well as men of eminence in the city, and when Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus said: "King A.grip'pa and all you men who are present with us. you are beholding this man concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews together have applied to me both in Jerusalem and here. shouting that he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I perceived he had committed nothing deserving of death. So when this [man] himself appealed to the August One. I decided to send him. 26 But concerning him I have nothing certain to write to [my] Lord. Therefore I brought him forth before you, and especially before you. King A.grip'pa, in order that, after the judicial examination has taken place, I might get something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not also to signify the charges against him."

26 A grip'pa said to Paul: "You are permitted to speak in behalf of yourself." Then Paul stretched his hand out and proceeded to say in his defense:

2 "Concerning all the things of which I am accused by Jews, King A.grip'pa, I count myself happy that it is before you I am to make my defense this day, 3 especially as well as the controversies among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

I went so far as to persecuting them even in outside cities. 12 "Amid these efforts as I was journeying to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests, 13 I saw at midday on the road, O king, a light beyond the brilliance of the sun flash from heaven about me and about those journeying with me. 14 And when we had all fallen to the ground I heard a voice say to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? To keep kicking against the goads makes it hard for you.' 15 But I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, as you are expert on all the customs 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16 Nevertheless, rise and stand on your feet. For to this end I have made myself visible to you. 4 "Indeed, as to the manner of in order to choose you as an attendant and a witness both of things you have seen and things I shall make you see respecting me; 17 while I deliver you from [this] people and from the nations, to whom I am sending you, 18 to open their eyes, to turn them from sect of our form of worship I lived darkness to light and from the a Pharisee. 6 And yet now for authority of Satan to God, in order the hope of the promise that for them to receive forgiveness of was made by God to our fore- sins and an inheritance among fathers I stand called to judgment; those sanctified by [their] faith 7 whereas our twelve tribes are in me.'

24 Now as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus said mad, Paul! Great learning is driving you into madness!" 25 But Paul said: "I am not going mad, Your Excellency Festus, but I am uttering sayings of truth and of soundness of mind. 26 In reality, the king to whom I am speaking with freeness of speech well knows about these things; for I am persuaded that not one of these things escapes his notice, for this thing has not been done in a corner. 27 Do you, King A.grip'pa, believe the Prophets? I know you believe.' 28 But A.grip'pa said to Paul: "In a short time you would persuade me to become a Christian." 29 At this Paul said: "I could wish to God that whether in a short time or in a long time not only you but also all those who hear me today would become men such as I also am, with the exception of these bonds.'

30 And the king rose and so did the governor and Ber · ni'ce and the men seated with them. 31 But as they withdrew they began talking with one another, saying: "This man practices nothing deserv-A.grip'pa said to Festus: "This toward the southeast.

4 And putting out to sea from there we sailed under the [shelter ofl Cy'prus, because the winds were contrary; 5 and we navigated through the open sea along Ci·li'cia and Pam·phyl'i·a and put into port at My'ra in Ly'ci-a. in a loud voice: "You are going 6 But there the army officer found a boat from Alexandria that was sailing for Italy, and he made us board it. 7 Then, after sailing on slowly quite a number of days and coming to Cni'dus with difficulty, because the wind did not let us get on, we sailed under the [shelter of] Crete at Sal·mo'ne, 8 and coasting along it with difficulty we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city La·se'a.

9 As considerable time had passed and by now it was hazardous to navigate because even the fast [of atonement day] had already passed by. Paul made a recommendation, 10 saying to them: "Men, I perceive that navigation is going to be with damage and great loss not only of the cargo and the boat but also of our souls." 11 However, the army officer went heeding the pilot and the ship owner rather than the things said by Paul. 12 Now as the harbor was inconvenient for wintering, the majority advised setting sail from there, to see if we could somehow make it to Phoenix to winter, a harbor of Crete that ing death or bonds." 32 Moreover, opens toward the northeast and 14 After no great while, however, a tempestuous wind called Eu·roaq'ui·lo rushed down upon it. 15 As the boat was violently seized and was not able to keep its head against the wind, we gave way and were borne along. 16 Now we ran under [the shelter of] a certain small island called Cau'da. and yet we were hardly able to aboard they began using helps to fear of running aground on the Syr'tis, they lowered the gear and thus were driven along. 18 Yet because we were being violently tossed with the tempest, the following [day] they began to lighten the ship; 19 and the third [day], with their own hands, they threw away the tackling of the boat.

20 When, now, neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no little tempest was lying upon us, all hope of our being saved finally began to be cut off. 21 And when there had been a long abstinence from food, then Paul stood up in the midst of them and said: "Men, you certainly ought to have taken my advice and not have put out to sea from Crete and have sustained this damage and loss. 22 Still, now I recommend to you to be of good cheer, for not a soul of you will be lost, only the boat will. 23 For this night there stood near me an angel of the God to whom I belong and to whom I render sacred service, 24 saying, 'Have no fear, Paul, You must stand before Caesar, and, look! God has freely given you all those sailing with you.' 25 Therefore be of good cheer, men; for I believe God that it will be exactly as it has been told me. 26 However, we must be cast ashore on a certain island."

13 Moreover, when the south at midnight the sailors began to wind blew softly, they thought they suspect they were drawing near to had as good as realized their pur- some land. 28 And they sounded pose, and they lifted anchor and the depth and found it twenty began coasting inshore along Crete. | fathoms; so they proceeded a short distance and again made a sounding and found it fifteen fathoms. 29 And because of fearing we might be cast somewhere upon the rocks. they cast out four anchors from the stern and began wishing for it to become day. 30 But when the sailors began seeking to escape from the boat and lowered the skiff into the sea under the pretense of inget possession of the skiff at the tending to let down anchors from stern. 17 But after hoisting it the prow, 31 Paul said to the army officer and the soldiers: "Unundergird the boat; and being in less these men remain in the boat, you cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

> 33 Now close to the approach of day Paul began to encourage one and all to take some food, saving: "Today is the fourteenth day you have been on the watch and you are continuing without food, having taken nothing for yourselves. 34 Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is in the interest of your safety; for not a hair of the head of one of you will perish." 35 After he said this, he also took a loaf, gave thanks to God before them all and broke it and started eating. 36 So they all became cheerful and themselves began taking some food. 37 Now. all together, we souls in the boat were about two hundred and seventy-six. 38 When they had been satisfied with food, they proceeded to lighten the boat by throwing the wheat overboard into the sea.

39 Finally when it became day. they could not recognize the land but they were observing a certain bay with a beach, and on this they were determined, if they could, to beach the boat. 40 So, cutting away the anchors, they let them fall into the sea, at the same time loosing the lashings of the rudder 27 Now as the fourteenth night oars and, after hoisting the forefell and we were being tossed to sail to the wind, they made for the and fro on the [sea of] A'dri a. beach. 41 When they lighted upon

And he commanded those able to swim to cast themselves into the sea and make it to land first, 44 and the rest to do so, some upon safely to land.

28 And when we had made it to safety, then we learned that the island was called Malta. 2 And the foreign-speaking people showed us extraordinary human kindness, for they kindled a fire and received all of us helpfully because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul collected a certain bundle of sticks and laid it upon the fire, a viper came out due to the heat and fastened itself on his hand. 4 When the foreign-speaking people caught sight of the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another: although he made it to safety from the sea, vindictive justice did not permit him to keep on living." 5 However, he shook the venomous creature off into the fire and suffered no harm. 6 But they were drop dead. After they waited for a long while and beheld nothing hurtful happen to him, they changed their mind and began saying he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place the principal man of the island, named Pub'li-us, had lands; and he received us hospitably and entertained us benevolently three days. 8 But it happened that the

began to come to him and be cured. 10 And they also honored us with many gifts and, when we were setting sail, they loaded us with things

11 Three months later we set sail in a boat from Alexandria that had wintered in the island and with the figurehead "Sons of Zeus." 12 And planks and some upon certain putting into port at Syracuse we rethings from the boat. And thus it mained three days. 13 from which came about that all were brought place we went around and arrived at Rhe'gi-um. And a day later a south wind sprang up and we made it into Pu·te'o·li on the second day. 14 Here we found brothers and were entreated to remain with them seven days; and in this way we came toward Rome. 15 And from there the brothers, when they heard the news about us, came to meet us as far as the Market Place of Ap'pi us and Three Taverns and, upon catching sight of them, Paul thanked God and took courage. 16 When, finally, we entered into Rome. Paul was permitted to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

17 However, three days later he "Surely this man is a murderer, and called together those who were the principal men of the Jews. When they had assembled, he proceeded to say to them: "Men, brothers, although I had done nothing contrary to the people or the customs of our forefathers, I was delivered over as expecting he was going to swell a prisoner from Jerusalem into the up with inflammation or suddenly hands of the Romans. 18 And these, after making an examination, were desirous of releasing me, as there was no cause for death in me. 19 But when the Jews kept speaking against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, but not as though I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 Really on this account I entreated to see and speak to you, for because of the hope of Israel this chain I have around me." 21 They said to him: father of Pub'li-us was lying down "Neither have we received letters

And he explained the matter to them by bearing thorough witness concerning the kingdom of God and by using persuasion with them concerning Jesus from both the law out to the nations; they will cerof Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening. 24 And some began to believe the things said; others would not believe. 25 So, because they were at disagreement with one another, they began to depart, while Paul made this one comment:

First of all, beday when God through Christ Jesus judges the secret things of mankind, according to the good news 3 What, then, [is the case]? If I declare.

25 Circumcision is, in fact, of benefit only if you practice law; 10 but glory and honor and peace but if you are a transgressor of for the Greek. 11 For there is no an uncircumcised person keeps the righteous requirements of the Law. 12 For instance, all those who his uncircumcision will be counted the uncircumcised [person] that is out the Law, judge you who with he is not a Jew who is one on the which is on the outside upon the flesh. 29 But he is a Jew who is one on the inside, and [his] circumcision is that of the heart by spirit, and not by a written code. The praise of that one comes, not from men, but from God.

9 What, then, is the superiority of the Jew, or what is the benefit of the circumcision? 2 A great cause they were entrusted with the sacred pronouncements of God. some did not express faith, will their lack of faith perhaps make you, however, the one teaching speaking as a man does.) 6 Never truth of God has been made more forth as an offering for propitiation prominent to his glory, why am I also yet being judged as a sinner? 8 And [why] not [say], just as it righteousness, because he was foris falsely charged to us and just giving the sins that occurred in as some men state that we say: "Let us do the bad things that forbearance; 26 so as to exhibit the good things may come"? The his own righteousness in this harmony with justice.

9 What then? Are we in a better position? Not at all! For above we in Jesus. have made the charge that Jews as well as Greeks are all under sin; 10 just as it is written: "There is not a righteous [man], not even one: 11 there is no one that has any insight, there is no one that seeks for God. 12 All [men] have deflected, all of them together have become worthless; there is no one that does kindness, there is not so much as one." 13 "Their throat is an opened grave, they have used deceit with their tongues." "Poison of asps is behind their lips," 14 "And their mouth is full of cursing and bitter expression." 15 "Their feet are speedy to shed blood." 16 "Ruin and misery are in their ways, 17 and they have not known the way of peace." their eyes."

19 Now we know that all the things the Law says it addresses to those under the Law, so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may become liable to God for punishment. 20 Therefore by works of law no flesh will be declared righteous before him, for

21 But now apart from law God's righteousness has been made manifest, as it is borne witness to by the Law and the Prophets; 22 yes, faith in Jesus Christ, for all those having faith. For there is no distinction. 23 For all have sinned are being declared righteous by his 8 happy is the man whose sin Je-

> 27 Where, then, is the boasting? It is shut out. Through what law? That of works? No indeed, but through the law of faith. 28 For we reckon that a man is declared righteous by faith apart from works of law. 29 Or is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also of people of the nations? Yes, of people of the nations also, 30 if truly God is one, who will declare circumcised people righteous as a result of faith and uncircumcised people righteous by means of their faith. 31 Do we, then, abolish law by means of our faith? Never may that happen! On the contrary, we establish law.

4 That being so, what shall we say about Abraham our fore-18 "There is no fear of God before father according to the flesh? 2 If, for instance, Abraham were declared righteous as a result of works, he would have ground for boasting; but not with God. 3 For what does the scripture say? "Abraham exercised faith in Jehovah, and it was counted to him as righteousness." 4 Now to the man that works the pay is counted, not as by law is the accurate knowledge an undeserved kindness, but as a debt. 5 On the other hand, to the man that does not work but puts faith in him who declares the ungodly one righteous, his faith is counted as righteousness. 6 Just God's righteousness through the as David also speaks of the happiness of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: 7 "Happy are those whose and fall short of the glory of God, lawless deeds have been pardoned 24 and it is as a free gift that they and whose sins have been covered;

(He is the father of us all. 17 just as it is written: men at the appointed time. 7 For "I have appointed you a father of hardly will anyone die for a rightmany nations.") This was in the eous [man]; indeed, for the good sight of the One in whom he had [man], perhaps, someone even dares faith, even of God, who makes the to die. 8 But God recommends his dead alive and calls the things own love to us in that, while we that are not as though they were. 18 Although beyond hope, yet based us. 9 Much more, therefore, since on hope he had faith, that he might we have been declared righteous become the father of many na- now by his blood, shall we be saved tions in accord with what had been through him from wrath. 10 For

23 That "it was counted to him" was written, however, not for his of us to whom it is destined to be counted, because we believe on him who raised Jesus our Lord up from the dead. 25 He was delivered up

Therefore, now that we have been declared righteous as a result of faith, let us enjoy peace 13 For it was not through law with God through our Lord Jesus that Abraham or his seed had the Christ. 2 through whom also we promise that he should be heir of a have gained our approach by faith into this undeserved kindness in which we now stand; and let us exult, based on hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but let us exult while in tribulations, 15 In reality the Law produces since we know that tribulation prowrath, but where there is no law, duces endurance; 4 endurance, in turn, an approved condition; the 16 On this account it was as a approved condition, in turn, hope, which was given us.

the death of his Son, much more, passing might abound. But where now that we have become reconciled we shall be saved by his life. 11 And not only that, but we are also exulting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation

12 That is why, just as through Lord. one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned-. 13 For until the Law sin was in the world. but sin is not charged against anyone when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless, death ruled as king from Adam down to Moses. even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of the transgression by Adam, who bears a resemblance to him that was to come.

15 But it is not with the gift as it was with the trespass. For if by one man's trespass many died, the kindness by the one man Jesus Christ abounded much more to many. 16 Also, it is not with the free gift as it was with the way things worked through the one [man] that sinned. For the judgment resulted from one trespass in condemnation, but the gift resulted from many trespasses in a declaration of righteousness. 17 For if by the trespass of the one [man] death ruled as king through that one, much more will those who receive the abundance of the undeserved kindness and of the free gift of righteousness rule [person]. Jesus Christ.

18 So, then, as through one trespass the result to men of all sorts was condemnation, likewise also result to men of all sorts is a declaring of them righteous for life. 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man many were constituted sinners, likewise also through the obedience of the tal bodies that you should obey one [person] many will be consti- their desires. 13 Neither go on came reconciled to God through came in beside in order that tressin abounded, undeserved kindness abounded still more. 21 To what end? That, just as sin ruled as king with death, likewise also undeserved kindness might rule as king through righteousness with everlasting life in view through Jesus Christ our Consequently, what shall we say? Shall we continue in sin. that undeserved kindness may abound? 2 Never may that happen! Seeing that we died with reference to sin, how shall we keep on living any longer in it? 3 Or do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we were buried with him through our baptism into his death, in order that, just as Christ was raised up from the dead through the glory of the Father. we also should likewise walk in a undeserved kindness of God and newness of life. 5 For if we have his free gift with the undeserved become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall certainly also be funited with him in the likeness1 of his resurrection; 6 because we know that our old personality was impaled with [him]. that our sinful body might be made inactive, that we should no longer go on being slaves to sin. 7 For he who has died has been acquitted from [his] sin.

8 Moreover, if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. 9 For we know that Christ, now that he has been raised up from the dead, dies no more: death is master over him as kings in life through the one no more. 10 For [the death] that he died, he died with reference to sin once for all time; but [the life] that he lives, he lives with reference to God. 11 Likewise also you: through one act of justification the reckon yourselves to be dead indeed with reference to sin but living with reference to God by Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin continue to rule as king in your mortuted righteous. 20 Now the Law presenting your members to sin as weapons of unrighteousness, but 3 So, then, while her husband is you are not under law but under undeserved kindness.

16 Do you not know that if you keep presenting yourselves to anyview or of obedience with righteousness in view? 17 But thanks 6 But now we have been discharged sin but you became obedient from to which you were handed over. 18 Yes, since you were set free from sin, you became slaves to righteousness. 19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh: for even as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness with lawlessness in view, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness with holiness in view. 20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free as ment, worked out in me covetousto righteousness.

21 What, then, was the fruit that you used to have at that time? Things of which you are now ashamed. For the end of those things is death. 22 However, now, because you were set free from sin but became slaves to God, you are having your fruit in the way of holiness, and the end everlasting life. 23 For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord.

But if her husband dies, righteousness. 14 For sin must not she is free from his law, so that be master over you, seeing that she is not an adulteress if she becomes another man's 4 So, my brothers, you also were 15 What follows? 7 What, then, shall we say? Is the Law sin? Never may that become so! Really I would not have come to know sin if it had not been for the Law; and, for example, I would not have known covetousness if the Law had not said: "You must not covet." 8 But sin, receiving an inducement through the commandness of every sort, for apart from law sin was dead. 9 In fact. I was once alive apart from law; but when the commandment arrived.

sin came to life again, but I died. 10 And the commandment which was to life, this I found to be to death. 11 For sin, receiving an inducement through the commandment, seduced me and killed me through it. 12 Wherefore, on its part, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

13 Did, then, what is good become death to me? Never may that happen! But sin did, that it might is master over a man as long as be shown as sin working out death her husband dies, she is discharged 14 For we know that the Law is from the law of her husband, spiritual; but I am fleshly, sold is right, what is bad is present with me. 22 I really delight in the law of God according to the man that resides in you. I am within, 23 but I behold in Jesus Christ our Lord! So, then, with [my] mind I myself am a slave to God's law, but with [my] flesh to sin's law.

Christ Jesus have no condemnation. 2 For the law of that spirit which gives life in union with Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For, there being an incapability on the part of the Law, while it was weak through the flesh, God, by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and concerning sin, condemned sin in the flesh. 4 that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us who walk, not in accord with eager expectation of the creation the flesh, but in accord with the is waiting for the revealing of the spirit. 5 For those who are in accord with the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh. but those in accord with the spirit subjected it, on the basis of hope on the things of the spirit. 6 For 21 that the creation itself also will

5 For Moses writes that the man that has done the righteousness of the Law will live by it. 6 But the which he prepared beforehand for righteousness resulting from faith glory, 24 namely, us, whom he speaks in this manner: "Do not called not only from among Jews say in your heart, 'Who will ascend but also from among nations, into heaven?' that is, to bring [what of it]? 25 It is as he says Christ down; 7 or, 'Who will debring Christ up from the dead." |"All day long I have spread out is near you, in your own mouth and | disobedient and talks back." in your own heart"; that is, the "word" of faith, which we are preaching. 9 For if you publicly mouth,' that Jesus is Lord, and exercise faith in your heart that God raised him up from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart one exercises faith for righteousness, but with the mouth one makes public declaration for salvation.

11 For the Scripture says: "None that rests his faith on him will be disappointed." 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for there is the same Lord over all, who is rich to all those calling upon him. 13 For "everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved." 14 However, how will they call on him in whom they have not put faith? How, in turn, will they put faith in him of whom they have not heard? How, in turn, will they hear without someone to preach? 15 How, in turn, will they preach unless they have been sent forth? Just as it is written: "How comely are the feet of those who declare good news of good things!"

16 Nevertheless, they did not all the word about Christ. 18 Nevertheless I ask, They did not fail "into all the earth their sound went out, and to the extremities of the inhabited earth their utterances." 19 Nevertheless I ask, Israel did not fail to know, did they? pletely? I ask, then, God did not reject his people, did he? Never may that happen! For I also am an declare that 'word in your own Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not reject his people, whom he first recognized. Why, do you not know what the Scripture says in connection with E·li'jah, as he pleads with God against Israel? 3 "Jehovah, they have killed your prophets, they have dug up your altars, and I alone am left, and they are looking for my soul." 4 Yet, what does the divine pronouncement say to him? "I have left seven thousand men over for myself, [men] who have not bent the knee to Ba'al." 5 In this way, therefore, at the present season also a remnant has turned up according to a choosing due to undeserved kindness. 6 Now if it is by undeserved kindness, it is no longer due to works; otherwise, the undeserved kindness no longer proves to be undeserved kindness.

7 What, then? The very thing Israel is earnestly seeking he did not obtain, but the ones chosen obtained it. The rest had their sensibilities blunted: 8 just as it obey the good news. For Isaiah is written: "God has given them a says: "Jehovah, who put faith in spirit of deep sleep, eyes so as not the thing heard by us?" 17 So to see and ears so as not to hear. faith follows the thing heard. Do not become discreet in Your own eyes.

17 Return evil for evil to no one. Provide fine things in the sight of all men. 18 If possible, as far as it depends upon you, be peaceable with all men. 19 Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but yield place to the wrath; for it is written: "Vengeance is mine: I will repay, says Jehovah." 20 But, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he bor: therefore love is the law's is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by doing this you will heap fiery coals upon his head." 21 Do not let yourself be conquered by the evil, but keep conquering from sleep, for now our salvation the evil with the good.

13 Let every soul be in subthorities, for there is no authority near. Let us therefore put off the ative positions by God. 2 Thereif you are doing what is bad, be in that it bears the sword; for it is God's minister, an avenger to express wrath upon the one practicing what is bad.

5 There is therefore compelling jection, not only on account of that wrath but also on account of [YOUR] conscience. 6 For that is why you are also paying taxes; for they are God's public servants constantly serving this very purpose. 7 Render to all their dues, to him who [calls for] the tax, the tax; to him who [calls for] the tribute. the tribute; to him who I calls for fear, such fear; to him who [calls for] honor, such honor.

8 Do not you people be owing anybody a single thing, except to love one another: for he that loves his fellow man has fulfilled [the] law. 9 For the [law code], "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder, You must not steal, You must not covet," and whatever other commandment there is, is summed up in this word. namely, "You must love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love does not work evil to one's neighfulfillment.

11 [Do] this, too, because you people know the season, that it is already the hour for you to awake is nearer than at the time when we became believers. 12 The night jection to the superior au- is well along; the day has drawn works belonging to darkness and let us put on the weapons of the ing one another any longer, but walk decently, not in revelries and drunken bouts, not in illicit interstrife and jealousy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not be planning ahead for the desires of the flesh.

Welcome the [man] having weaknesses in [his] faith, but not to make decisions on inward questionings. 2 One [man] has faith to eat everything, but the [man] who is weak eats vegetables. 3 Let the one eating not look down on the one not eating, and let the one not eating not judge the one eating, for God has welcomed that one. 4 Who are you to judge the house servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for Jehovah can make him stand.

5 One [man] judges one day as above another; another [man] judges one day as all others; let each [man] be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He who observes the day observes it to Jehovah. Also, he who eats, eats to Jehovah, for he gives thanks to God; and he who does not eat does not eat to Jehovah, and yet gives thanks to God. 7 None of us, in fact, lives with regard to himself only, and no one dies with regard to himself only; 8 for both if we live, we live to Jehovah, and if we die, we die to Jehovah. Therefore both if we live and if we die, we belong to Jehovah. 9 For to this end Christ died and came to life again, that he might be Lord over both the dead and the living.

10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you also look down on your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat is good for [his] upbuilding. 3 For of God; 11 for it is written: "'As even Christ did not please himself; I live, says Jehovah, 'to me every but just as it is written: "The reknee will bend down, and every tongue will make open acknowledgment to God." 12 So, then, each me." 4 For all the things that of us will render an account for himself to God.

13 Therefore let us not be judglight. 13 As in the daytime let us rather make this your decision, not to put before a brother a stumbling block or a cause for tripping. 14 I course and loose conduct, not in know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is defiled in itself; only where a man considers something to be defiled, to him it is defiled. 15 For if because of food your brother is being grieved, you are no longer walking in accord with love. Do not by your food ruin that one for whom Christ died. 16 Do not, therefore, let the good you people do be spoken of with injury to you. 17 For the kingdom of God does not mean eating and drinking, but [means] righteousness and peace and joy with holy spirit. 18 For he who in this regard slaves for Christ is acceptable to God and has approval with men.

Do not judge others as to food, drink

19 So, then, let us pursue the things making for peace and the things that are upbuilding to one another. 20 Stop tearing down the work of God just for the sake of food. True, all things are clean, but it is injurious to the man who with an occasion for stumbling eats. 21 It is well not to eat flesh or to drink wine or do anything over which your brother stumbles. 22 The faith that you have, have it in accord with yourself in the sight of God. Happy is the man that does not put himself on judgment by what he approves. 23 But if he has doubts, he is already condemned if he eats, because [he does] not [eat] out of faith. Indeed, everything that is not out of faith is sin.

15 We, though, who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those not strong, and not to be pleasing ourselves. 2 Let each of us please [his] neighbor in what proaches of those who were reproaching you have fallen upon were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the | 18 For I will not venture to tell one comfort from the Scriptures we thing if it is not of those things might have hope. 5 Now may the which Christ worked through me God who supplies endurance and for the nations to be obedient, by comfort grant you to have among [my] word and deed, 19 with the yourselves the same mental attitude that Christ Jesus had, 6 that with one accord you may with one from Jerusalem and in a circuit as mouth glorify the God and Father far as Il-lyr'i cum I have thoroughly of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore welcome one another, fust as the Christ also welcomed made it my aim not to declare the us, with glory to God in view. 8 For I say that Christ actually became a minister of those who I might not be building on another are circumcised in behalf of God's man's foundation; 21 but, just as truthfulness, so as to verify the it is written: "Those to whom no promises He made to their forefathers, 9 and that the nations him will see, and those who have might glorify God for his mercy. Just as it is written: "That is why I will openly acknowledge you among the nations and to your name I will make melody." 10 And again he says: "Be glad, you nations, with his people." 11 And again: "Praise Jehovah, all you 24 whenever I am on my way to nations, and let all the peoples Spain, I hope, above all, when I praise him." 12 And again Isaiah says: "There will be the root of Jes'se, and there will be one arising part way there by you after I have to rule nations; on him nations first in some measure been satisfied will rest their hope." 13 May the with your company. 25 But now God who gives hope fill you with all joy and peace by your believing, that you may abound in hope with those in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A·cha'power of holy spirit.

is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in union with Christ Jesus, called to be holy ones, tocalling upon the name of our Lord. Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

3 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank God for you in view of the undeserved kindness of God given to you in Christ Jesus: 5 that in everything you have been enriched in him, in full ability to speak and in full knowledge, 6 even as the witness about among you, 7 so that you do not you are eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8 He will also make you firm to the end, that you may be open to Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into our Lord.

10 Now I exhort you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus stumbling but to the nations fool-Christ that you should all speak ishness; 24 however, to those who in agreement, and that there should not be divisions among you, but Greeks, Christ the power of God that you may be fitly united in the and the wisdom of God. 25 Besame mind and in the same line cause a foolish thing of God is of thought. 11 For the disclosure was made to me about you, my brothers, by those of [the house of] Chlo'e, that dissensions exist among you. 12 What I mean is this, that each one of you says: "I belong to Paul," "But I to A pol'los," "But I to Ce'phas," "But I to Christ."

13 The Christ exists divided. Paul was not impaled for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the the world, that he might put the name of Paul? 14 I am thankful strong things to shame; 28 and

1 Paul, called to be an apostle pus and Ga'ius, 15 so that no one of Jesus Christ through God's may say that you were baptized in will, and Sos'the nes our brother my name. 16 Yes, I also baptized 2 to the congregation of God that the household of Steph'a nas. As for the rest. I do not know whether I baptized anybody else. 17 For Christ dispatched me, not to go gether with all who everywhere are baptizing, but to go declaring the good news, not with wisdom of speech, that the torture stake of the Christ should not be made useless.

18 For the speech about the torture stake is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is God's power. 19 For it is written: "I will make the wisdom of the wise [men] perish, and the intelligence of the intellectual [men] I will shove aside." 20 Where is the wise man? the Christ has been rendered firm Where the scribe? Where the debater of this system of things? Did fall short in any gift at all, while not God make the wisdom of the world foolish? 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not get to know God, God saw good through the no accusation in the day of our foolishness of what is preached to save those believing.

22 For both the Jews ask for a sharing with his Son Jesus Christ signs and the Greeks look for wisdom: 23 but we preach Christ impaled, to the Jews a cause for are the called, both Jews and wiser than men, and a weak thing of God is stronger than men.

26 For you behold his calling of you, brothers, that not many wise in a fleshly way were called, not many powerful, not many of noble birth; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put the wise men to shame; and God chose the weak things of I baptized none of you except Cris'- God chose the ignoble things of the at all word printed pert miggs if the derivor every Lill about

And so I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come with an extravagance of speech or of wisdom declaring the sacred secret of God to You. 2 For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him impaled. 3 And I came to you in weakness and in fear and with much trembling: 4 and my speech and what I preached were not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a dem-5 that your faith might be, not in 14 But a physical man does not receive the things of the spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him: and he cannot get to know [them], because they are examined spiritually, 15 However, the spiritual man examines indeed all things, but he himself is not examined by any man. 16 For "who has come to know the mind of Jehovah, that he may instruct him?" But we do have the mind of Christ.

3 And so, brothers, I was not able to speak to you as to spiritual men, but as to fleshly men, as to babes in Christ. 2 I fed you onstration of spirit and power, milk, not something to eat, for you were not yet strong enough. men's wisdom, but in God's power. And not get circumcised. 19 Circum- | the unmarried woman, and the cision does not mean a thing, and virgin, is anxious for the things of uncircumcision means not a thing, but observance of God's commandments [does]. 20 In whatever state each one was called, let him remain in it. 21 Were you called when a slave? Do not let it worry you; but if you can also become free, rather seize the opportunity. 22 For anyone in [the] Lord that was called when a slave is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called when a free man is a slave of Christ, 23 You were bought with each one was called, brothers, let him remain in it associated with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I be faithful. 26 Therefore I think this to be well in view of the necessity here with us, that it is well for a man to continue as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Stop seeking a release. Are you marriage will do better. loosed from a wife? Stop seeking a wife. 28 But even if you did marry, would commit no sin. However, those who do will have tribulation YOU.

Mac·e·do'ni·a.

14 But thanks be to God who always leads us in a triumphal procession in company with the Christ and makes the odor of the knowledge of him perceptible through us in every place! 15 For to God we are a sweet odor of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing; 16 to the latter ones an odor issuing from death to death, to the former ones an odor issuing from life to life. And who is adequately qualified for these things? 17 [We are:] for we are not peddlers of the word of God as many men are, but as out of sincerity, yes, as sent from God, under God's view, in company with Christ, we are speaking,

Are we starting again to recomhaps, like some men, need letters fact, down till today whenever

4 Now through the Christ we are adequately qualified to reckon anything as issuing from ourselves. but our being adequately qualified

7 Moreover, if the code which administers death and which was engraved in letters in stones came of Israel could not gaze intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, [a glory] that was to be done away with, 8 why should not the administering of the spirit be much more with glory? 9 For if the code administering condemnation was glorious, much more does the administering of righteousness abound with glory. 10 In fact, even that which has once been made glorious has been stripped of glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels it. 11 For if that which was to be done away with was brought in with glory, much more would that which remains be with glory.

12 Therefore, as we have such a hope, we are using great freeness of speech, 13 and not doing as when Moses would put a veil upon his face, that the sons of Israel might not gaze intently at the end of that which was to be done away with. 14 But their mental powers were dulled. For to this present day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the old covenant, because it is done away mend ourselves? Or do we, per- with by means of Christ. 15 In taken away. 17 Now Jehovah is you. the Spirit; and where the spirit of Jehovah is, there is freedom. the glory of Jehovah, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, exactly as done by Jehovah [the] Spirit.

That is why, since we have this ministry according to the mercy that was shown us. we do not give up: 2 but we have renounced the underhanded things of which to be ashamed, not walking with cunning. neither adulterating the word of God, but by making the truth manifest recommending ourselves to every human conscience in the sight of God. 3 If, now, the good news we declare is in fact veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing. 4 among whom the god of this system of things has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, that the illumination of the glorious good news about the Christ, who is the image of God, might not shine through. 5 For we are preaching, not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. 6 For God is he of darkness," and he has shone on our hearts to illuminate [them] by the face of Christ.

7 However, we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the power beyond what is normal may be God's and not that out of ourselves. 8 We are pressed in every way, but not cramped beyond movelurch: we are thrown down, but not destroyed. 10 Always we endure everywhere in our body the deathdealing treatment given to Jesus,

Moses is read, a veil lies upon their | may also be made manifest in hearts. 16 But when there is a our mortal flesh. 12 Consequently turning to Jehovah, the veil is death is at work in us, but life in 13 Now because we have the same spirit of faith as that of 18 And all of us, while we with which it is written: "I exercised unveiled faces reflect like mirrors faith, therefore I spoke," we too exercise faith and therefore we speak, 14 knowing that he who raised Jesus up will raise us up also together with Jesus and will present us together with you. 15 For all things are for Your sakes, in order that the undeserved kindness which was multiplied should abound because of the thanksgiving of many more to the glory of God.

16 Therefore we do not give up. but even if the man we are outside is wasting away, certainly the man we are inside is being renewed from day to day. 17 For though the tribulation is momentary and light, it works out for us a glory that is of more and more surpassing weight and is everlasting; 18 while we keep our eyes, not on the things seen, but on the things unseen. For the things seen are temporary, but the things unseen are everlasting.

5 For we know that if our earthly house this tent should be dishouse, this tent, should be diswho said: "Let the light shine out solved, we are to have a building from God, a house not made with hands, everlasting in the heavens. with the glorious knowledge of God 2 For in this dwelling house we do indeed groan, earnestly desiring to put on the one for us from heaven. 3 so that, having really put it on, we shall not be found naked. 4 In fact, we who are in this tent groan, being weighed down; because we want, not to put it off. ment: we are perplexed, but not but to put on the other, that what absolutely with no way out; 9 we is mortal may be swallowed up by are persecuted, but not left in the life. 5 Now he that produced us for this very thing is God, who gave us the token of what is to come, that is, the spirit.

6 We are therefore always of good that the life of Jesus may also courage and know that, while we be made manifest in our body, have our home in the body, we 11 For we who live are ever being are absent from the Lord, 7 for brought face to face with death for we are walking by faith, not by Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus sight. 8 But we are of good courage and are well pleased rather to God were making entreaty through to make our home with the Lord, beg: "Become reconciled to God." home with him or being absent might become God's righteousness from him, we may be acceptable to by means of him. him. 10 For we must all be made manifest before the judgment seat of the Christ, that each one may get his award for the things done through the body, according to the things he has practiced, whether it is good or vile.

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear of the Lord, we keep persuading men, but we have been made manifest to God. However, I hope that we have been made manifest also to your consciences. 12 We are 4 but in every way we recommend not again recommending ourselves to you, but giving you an inducement for boasting in respect to us, that you may have [an answer] for those who boast over the outward orders, by labors, by sleepless nights, appearance but not over the heart. by times without food, 6 by purity, 13 For if we were out of our mind, it was for God; if we are sound in by kindness, by holy spirit, by mind, it is for you. 14 For the love love free from hypocrisy, 7 by the Christ has compels us, because this is what we have judged, that one man died for all; so, then, all had died; 15 and he died for all left, 8 through glory and dishonthat those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died for them and was raised

16 Consequently from now on we know no man according to the flesh. Even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, certainly we now know him so no more. 17 Consequently if anyone is in union with Christ, he is a new creation; the old things passed away, look! new things have come into existence. 18 But all things are from God, who reconciled us to you are cramped for room in your himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of the reconciliation, 19 namely, that God was by means of Christ reconciling a world to himself, not reckoning to them with unbelievers. > 3 In no way are we giving any cause for stumbling, that our ministry might not be found fault with: ourselves as God's ministers, by the endurance of much, by tribulations. by cases of need, by difficulties, 5 by beatings, by prisons, by disby knowledge, by long-suffering, truthful speech, by God's power; through the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the or, through bad report and good report: as deceivers and vet truthful, 9 as being unknown and yet being recognized, as dying and yet. look! we live, as disciplined and yet not delivered to death, 10 as sorrowing but ever rejoicing, as poor but making many rich, as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

> 11 Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians, our heart has widened out. 12 You are not cramped for room within us, but own tender affections. 13 So, as a recompense in return-I speak as to children-you, too, widen out.

For we are a temple of a sadness of the world produces living God; just as God said: "I death. 11 For, look! this very shall reside among them and walk thing, your being saddened in a among [them], and I shall be their godly way, what a great earnest-God, and they will be my people." 17 "Therefore get out from among them, and separate yourselves, says yes, fear, yes, longing, yes, zeal, Jehovah, 'and quit touching the un- yes, righting of the wrong! 7 Therefore, since we have these promises, beloved ones, let us cleanse ourselves of every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in God's fear.

2 Allow room for us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one. 3 I do not say this to condemn you. For I have said before that you are in our hearts to die and to live with us. 4 I have great freeness of speech toward you. I have great boasting in regard to you. I am filled with comfort, I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.

5 In fact, when we arrived in Mac·e·do'ni·a, our flesh got no relief, but we continued to be were fights without, fears within. 6 Nevertheless God, who comforts those laid low, comforted us by the comforted over you, as he brought us word again of your longing, so that I rejoiced yet more.

However, in addition to our comfort we rejoiced still more abundantly due to the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. 14 For if we have made any boast to him about you. I have not been put to shame; but as we have spoken all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus has proved to be true. 15 Also. his tender affections are more abundant toward you, while he calls to mind the obedience of all of you. how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice that afflicted in every manner-there in every way I may have good courage by reason of you.

8 Now we let you know, brothers, about the undeserved kindness about the undeserved kindness presence of Titus; 7 yet not alone of God that has been bestowed by his presence, but also by the upon the congregations of Mac-ecomfort with which he had been do'ni a, 2 that during a great test under affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty made the YOUR mourning, Your zeal for me; riches of their generosity abound. 3 For according to their actual ability, yes, I testify, beyond their actual ability this was, 4 while Even if I did at first regret it, (I they of their own accord kept begging us with much entreaty for the [privilege of] kindly giving and 9 now I rejoice, not because you for a share in the ministry destined were just saddened, but because for the holy ones. 5 And not you were saddened into repenting; merely as we had hoped, but first for you were saddened in a godly they gave themselves to the Lord way, that you might suffer no and to us through God's will. damage in anything due to us. 6 This led us to encourage Titus

10 And in this I render an opinion: for this matter is of benefit to you, seeing that already a year ago you initiated not only the doing but also the wanting [to do]; 11 now, then, finish up also the doing of it, in order that, just as there was a readiness to want to do. so also there should be a finishing up of it out of what you have. 12 For if the readiness is there first. it is especially acceptable according to what a person has, not according Mac·e·do'ni ans about you, that to what a person does not have. 16 Now thanks be to God for putting the same earnestness for you in the heart of Titus, 17 because he has indeed responded to the encouragement, but, being very earnest, he is going forth of his this might be ready as a boun-own accord to you. 18 But we are tiful gift and not as something sending along with him the brother whose praise in connection with the > 9 Now concerning the ministry that is for the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write you, 2 for I know your readiness of mind of which I am boasting to the year, and your zeal has stirred up the majority of them. 3 But I am sending the brothers, that our boasting about you might not prove empty in this respect, but that you may really be ready, just as I used to say you would be. 4 Otherwise, in some way, if Mac·e·do'ni ans should come with me and find you not ready, we-not to say you-should be put to shame in this assurance of ours. 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers to come to you in advance and to get ready in advance your bountiful gift previously promised, that thus extorted.

But, in fact, you are putting up with me! 2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy, for I personally promised you in marriage to one husband that I might present you as a chaste virgin to the Christ. 3 But I am unreasonable. Still, if you I am afraid that somehow, as the really do, accept me even if as serpent seduced Eve by its cunning. Your minds might be corrupted away from the sincerity and the chastity that are due the Christ. 4 For, as it is, if someone comes and preaches a Jesus other than the one we preached, or you receive a spirit other than what you received, or good news other than what you accepted, you easily put up [with him]. 5 For I consider that I have not in a single thing proved inferior to your superfine apostles. 6 But even if I am unskilled in speech, I certainly am not in knowledge; but in every way we manifested [it] to you in all things.

7 Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself that you might be exalted, because without cost I gladly declared the good news of God to you? 8 Other congrega- 22 Are they Hebrews? But their end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think unreasonable, that I too may do some little boasting, 17 What I speak I speak, not after the Lord's example, but as in unreasonableness, in this cocksureness peculiar to boasting. 18 Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I too will boast. 19 For you gladly put up with the unreasonable persons, seeing you are reasonable, 20 In fact, you put up with whoever enslaves you, whoever devours [what you have], whoever grabs what you have], whoever exalts himself over [you], whoever strikes you in the face.

1 Paul, an apostle, neither from present wicked system of things men nor through a man, but according to the will of our God through Jesus Christ and God the and Father. 5 to whom be the Father, who raised him up from glory forever and ever. Amen. the dead. 2 and all the brothers Ga·la'ti·a:

6 I marvel that you are being so with me, to the congregations of quickly removed from the One who called you with Christ's undeserved 3 May you have undeserved kindness over to another sort of kindness and peace from God our good news. 7 But it is not an-Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ, other; only there are certain ones 4 He gave himself for our sins who are causing you trouble and that he might deliver us from the wanting to pervert the good news about the Christ. 8 However, even only used to hear: "The man that if we or an angel out of heaven were to declare to you as good claring the good news about the news something beyond what we faith which he formerly devasdeclared to you as good news, let tated." 24 So they began glorifyhim be accursed. 9 As we have ing God because of me. said above, I also now say again, Whoever it is that is declaring to you as good news something beyond what you accepted, let him be accursed.

10 Is it, in fact, men I am now trying to persuade or God? Or am I seeking to please men? If I were yet pleasing men, I would not be Christ's slave. 11 For I put you on notice, brothers, that the good news which was declared by me as good news is not something human; 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], except through revelation by Jesus Christ.

13 You, of course, heard about my conduct formerly in Ju'da ism. that to the point of excess I kept on persecuting the congregation of God and devastating it. 14 and I was making greater progress in Ju'da ism than many of my own age in my race, as I was far more zealous for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called [me] through his undeserved kindness, thought good 16 to reveal his Son in connection with me, that I might declare the good news about him to the nations. I did not go at once into conference with flesh and blood. 17 Neither did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles previous to me, but I went off into Arabia, and I came back again to Damascus.

18 Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem to visit Ce'phas, and I stayed with him for fifteen days. 19 But I saw no one else of the apostles, only James the brother of the Lord. 20 Now as to the things I am writing you, look! in the sight of God, I am not lying.

21 After that I went into the regions of Syria and of Ci-li'cia. 22 But I was unknown by face to 10 Only we should keep the poor the congregations of Ju-de'a that in mind. This very thing I have were in union with Christ: 23 they also earnestly endeavored to do.

Then after fourteen years I again went up to Jerusalem with Bar'na bas, taking also Titus along with me. 2 But I went up as a result of a revelation. And I laid before them the good news which I am preaching among the nations, privately, however, before those who were outstanding men, for fear that somehow I was running or had run in vain. 3 Nevertheless. not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, although he was a Greek. 4 But because of the false brothers brought in quietly, who sneaked in to spy upon our freedom which we have in union with Christ Jesus. that they might completely enslave us- 5 to these we did not yield by way of submission, no, not for an hour, in order that the truth of the good news might continue with you. 6 But on the part of those who seemed to be something-whatever sort of men they formerly were makes no difference to me-God does not go by a man's outward appearance-to me, in fact, those outstanding men imparted nothing new. 7 But, on the contrary, when they saw that I had entrusted to me the good news for those who are uncircumcised, just as Peter [had it] for those who are circumcised— 8 for He who gave Peter powers necessary for an apostleship to those who are circumcised gave powers also to me for those who are of the nations: 9 yes. when they came to know the undeserved kindness that was given me. James and Ce'phas and John. the ones who seemed to be pillars, gave me and Bar'na bas the right hand of sharing together, that we should go to the nations, but they to those who are circumcised.

11 However, when Ce'phas came O senseless Gala'tians, who is to Antioch, I resisted him face to fear of those of the circumcised class. 13 The rest of the Jews also joined him in putting on this pretense, so that even Bar'na bas was led along with them in their pretense. 14 But when I saw they were not walking straight according to the truth of the good news, I said to Ce'phas before them all: "If you, though you are a Jew, live Jews do, how is it that you are compelling people of the nations to live according to Jewish practice?"

. 15 We who are Jews by nature. and not sinners from the nations. 16 knowing as we do that a man is declared righteous, not due to works of law, but only through faith toward Christ Jesus, even we have put our faith in Christ Jesus, that we may be declared righteous due to faith toward Christ, and not due to works of law, because due to works of law no flesh will be declared righteous. 17 Now if we, in seeking to be declared righteous by means of Christ, have also ourselves been found sinners, is Christ in reality sin's minister? May that never happen! 18 For if the very things that I once threw down I build up again, I demonstrate myself to be a transgressor. 19 As for me, through law I died toward law, that I might become alive toward God. 20 I am live by means of them." 13 Christ impaled along with Christ. It is no longer I that live, but it is Christ that is living in union with me. Indeed, the life that I now live in flesh I live by the faith that is toward the Son of God, who loved me and handed himself over for me. 21 I do not shove aside the undeserved kindness of God: for if righteousness is through law, Christ actually died for nothing.

it that brought you under evil face, because he stood condemned, influence, you before whose eyes 12 For before the arrival of certain Jesus Christ was openly portrayed men from James, he used to eat impaled? 2 This alone I want to with people of the nations; but learn from you: Did you receive when they arrived, he went with- the spirit due to works of law or drawing and separating himself, in due to a hearing by faith? 3 Are you so senseless? After starting in spirit are you now being completed in flesh? 4 Did you undergo so many sufferings to no purpose? If it really was to no purpose. 5 He, therefore, who supplies you the spirit and performs powerful works among you, does he do it owing to works of law or owing to a hearing by faith? 6 Just as as the nations do, and not as Abraham "put faith in Jehovah, and it was counted to him as righteousness."

7 Surely you know that those who adhere to faith are the ones who are sons of Abraham. 8 Now the Scripture, seeing in advance that God would declare people of the nations righteous due to faith. declared the good news beforehand to Abraham, namely: "By means of you all the nations will be blessed." 9 Consequently those who adhere to faith are being blessed together with faithful Abraham.

10 For all those who depend upon works of law are under a curse; for it is written: "Cursed is every one that does not continue in all the things written in the scroll of the Law in order to do them." 11 Moreover, that by law no one is declared righteous with God is evident, because "the righteous one will live by reason of faith." 12 Now the Law does not adhere to faith, but "he that does them shall by purchase released us from the curse of the Law by becoming a curse instead of us, because it is written: "Accursed is every man hanged upon a stake." 14 The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham might come to be by means of Jesus Christ for the nations, that we might receive the promised spirit through our faith.

15 Brothers, I speak with a human illustration: A validated covenant, though it is a man's, no one sets aside or attaches additions to it. 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It says, not: "And to seeds," as in the case of many such, but as in the case of one: "And to your seed," who is Christ, 17 Further, I say this: As to the covenant previously validated by God, the Law that has come into being four hundred and thirty years later does not invalidate it, so as to abolish the promise. 18 For if the inheritance is due to law, it is no longer due to promise; whereas God has kindly given it to Abraham through a promise.

19 Why, then, the Law? It was added to make transgressions manifest, until the seed should arrive to whom the promise had been made; and it was transmitted through angels by the hand of a mediator. 20 Now there is no mediator where only one person is concerned, but God is only one. 21 Is the Law. therefore, against the promises of God? May that never happen! For if a law had been given that was able to give life, righteousness would actually have been by means of law. 22 But the Scripture delivered up all things together to the custody of sin, that the promise resulting from faith toward Jesus Christ might be given to those exercising faith.

23 However, before the faith arrived, we were being guarded under law, being delivered up together into custody, looking to the faith that was destined to be revealed. 24 Consequently the Law has become our tutor leading to Christ. that we might be declared righteous due to faith. 25 But now no longer under a tutor.

26 You are all, in fact, sons of God through your faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have put on Christ, 28 There is neither Jew nor freeman, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one 29 Moreover, if you belong to you would have gouged out your Christ, you are really Abraham's seed, heirs with reference to a promise.

4 Now I say that as long their is a babe he does not differ heir is a babe he does not differ at all from a slave, lord of all things though he is. 2 but he is under men in charge and under stewards until the day his father appointed beforehand. 3 Likewise we also, when we were babes, continued enslaved by the elementary things belonging to the world. 4 But when the full limit of the time arrived. God sent forth his Son, who came to be out of a woman and who came to be under law, 5 that he might release by purchase those under law, that we, in turn, might receive the adoption as sons.

6 Now because you are sons, God has sent forth the spirit of his Son into our hearts and it cries out: "Abba, Father!" 7 So, then, you are no longer a slave but a son; and if a son, also an heir through God.

8 Nevertheless, when you did not know God, then it was that you slaved for those who by nature are not gods. 9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather now that you have come to be known by God, how is it that you are turning back again to the weak and beggarly elementary things and want to slave for them over again? 10 You are scrupulously observing days and months and seasons and years. 11 I fear for you, that somehow I have toiled to no purpose respecting you.

12 Brothers, I beg you, Become as I am, because I used to be also as you are. You did me no wrong, that the faith has arrived, we are 13 But you know that it was through a sickness of my flesh I declared the good news to you the first time. 14 And what was a trial to you in my flesh, you did not treat with contempt or spit at in disgust: but you received me nor Greek, there is neither slave like an angel of God, like Christ Jesus. 15 Where, then, is that happiness you had? For I bear you [person] in union with Christ Jesus, witness that, if it had been possible, eyes and given them to me. free woman." 31 Wherefore, brothenemy because I tell you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you, not in a fine way, but they want to shut you off [from me], that you may zealously seek them. 18 However, it is fine for you to be zealously sought for in a fine cause at all times, and not only when I am present with you, 19 my little children, with whom I am again in childbirth pains until Christ is formed in you. 20 But I could wish to be present with you just now and to speak in a different way, because I am perplexed over YOU.

21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, Do you not hear the Law? 22 For example, it is written that Abraham acquired two sons, one by the servant girl and one by the free woman; 23 but the one by the servant girl was actually born in the manner of flesh, the other by the free woman through a promise. 24 These things stand as a symbolic drama; for these [women] mean two covenants, the one from Mount Si'nai, which brings forth children for slavery, and ments the whole lump. 10 I am which is Ha'gar. 25 Now this Ha'gar means Si'nai, a mountain in Arabia, and she corresponds with the Jerusalem today, for she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and she no matter who he may be. 11 As is our mother.

27 For it is written: "Be glad, you barren woman who does not give birth; break out and cry aloud, you woman who does not have childbirth pains; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than [those] of her who has the husband." 28 Now we. brothers, are children belonging to the promise the same as Isaac was. 29 But just as then the one born for the flesh, but through love in the manner of flesh began per- slave for one another. 14 For the secuting the one born in the entire Law stands fulfilled in one manner of spirit, so also now. 30 Nevertheless, what does the your neighbor as yourself." 15 If, Scripture say? "Drive out the serv- though, you keep on biting and ant girl and her son, for by no devouring one another, look out means shall the son of the servant that you do not get annihilated girl be an heir with the son of the by one another.

16 Well, then, have I become your ers, we are children, not of a servant girl, but of the free woman.

> For such freedom Christ set us free. Therefore stand fast, and do not let yourselves be confined again in a yoke of slavery.

2 See! I, Paul, am telling you that if you become circumcised. Christ will be of no benefit to you. 3 Moreover, I bear witness again to every man getting circumcised that he is under obligation to perform the whole Law. 4 You are parted from Christ, whoever you are that try to be declared righteous by means of law; you have fallen away from his undeserved kindness. 5 For our part we by spirit are eagerly waiting for the hoped-for righteousness as a result of faith. 6 For as regards Christ Jesus neither circumcision is of any value nor is uncircumcision, but faith operating through love [is].

7 You were running well. Who hindered you from keeping on obeying the truth? 8 This sort of persuasion is not from the One calling you. 9 A little leaven ferconfident about you who are in union with [the] Lord that you will not come to think otherwise; but the one who is causing you trouble will bear [his] judgment. for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? Then, indeed, the stumbling block of the torture stake has been abolished. 12 I wish the men who are trying to overturn you would even get themselves emasculated.

13 You were, of course, called for freedom, brothers; only do not use this freedom as an inducement saving, namely: "You must love

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, and they are fornication, uncleanness, loose conduct, 20 idolatry, practice of spiritism, enmities, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, contentions, divisions, sects, 21 envies, drunken bouts, revelries, and things like these. As to these things I am forewarning you, the same way as I did forewarn you, that those who practice such things will not inherit God's kingdom.

22 On the other hand, the fruitage of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 mildness, selfcontrol. Against such things there is no law. 24 Moreover, those who belong to Christ Jesus impaled the flesh together with its passions and desires.

25 If we are living by spirit, let us go on walking orderly also by spirit. 26 Let us not become egotistical, stirring up competition with one another, envying one another.

6 Brothers, even though a man takes some false step before he is aware of it, you who have spiritas you each keep an eye on yourself, for fear you also may be tempted. 2 Go on carrying the burdens of one another, and thus fulfill the law of the Christ. 3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he is deceiving what his own work is, and then he [of a slave] of Jesus. will have cause for exultation in comparison with the other person, spirit you show, brothers. Amen.

16 But I say, Keep walking by 5 For each one will carry his own

6 Moreover, let anyone who is being orally taught the word share desire, and the spirit against the in all good things with the one who gives such oral teaching.

7 Do not be misled: God is not one to be mocked. For whatever a man is sowing, this he will also led by spirit, you are not under reap; 8 because he who is sowing with a view to his flesh will reap corruption from his flesh, but he who is sowing with a view to the spirit will reap everlasting life from the spirit. 9 So let us not give up in doing what is fine, for in due season we shall reap if we do not tire out. 10 Really, then, as long as we have time favorable for it. let us work what is good toward all, but especially toward those related to [us] in the faith.

11 SEE with what large letters I have written you with my own hand.

12 All those who want to make a pleasing appearance in the flesh are the ones that try to compel you to get circumcised, only that they may not be persecuted for the torture stake of the Christ, Jesus. 13 For not even do those who are getting circumcised keep the Law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised that they may have cause for boasting in your flesh. 14 Never may it occur that I should boast, except in the torture stake of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been impaled to me and I to the world. 15 For ual qualifications try to readjust neither is circumcision anything such a man in a spirit of mildness, nor is uncircumcision, but a new creation [is something]. 16 And all those who will walk orderly by this rule of conduct, upon them be peace and mercy, even upon the Israel of God.

Jesus:

2 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and [the] Lord Jesus Christ, possession, to his glorious praise.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in union with Christ, 4 just as he chose us in union with him before the founding of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish before him in love. 5 For he foreordained us to the adoption through Jesus Christ as sons to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. 6 in praise of his glorious undeserved kindness which he kindly conferred upon us by means of [his] loved one. 7 By means of him we have the release by ransom through the blood of that one, yes, the forgiveness of [our] trespasses, according to the riches of his undeserved kindness.

8 This he caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and good sense, 9 in that he made known to us the sacred secret of his will. It is according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself 10 for an administration at the full limit of the appointed times, namely, to gather all things together again in the Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth. I continue mentioning you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the accurate knowledge of him; 18 the eyes of Your heart having been enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he called you, what the glorious riches are which he holds as an inheritance for the holy ones, 19 and what the surpassing greatness of his power is toward us believers. It is according to the operation of the mightiness of his strength, 20 with which he has operated in the case of the Christ when he raised him up from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above every government and authority and power and lordship and every name named, not only in this system of things, but also in that to come. 22 He also subjected all things under his feet, and made him head over all things to the congregation, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills up all things in all.

14 On account of this I bend my knees to the Father, 15 to whom every family in heaven and on earth owes its name, 16 to the end that he may grant you according to the riches of his glory to be made mighty in the man you are inside with power through his spirit. 17 to have the Christ dwell through [your] faith in your hearts with love; that you may be rooted and established on the foundation. 18 in order that you may be thoroughly able to grasp mentally with all the holy ones what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of the Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may in everything be filled with all the fullness that God gives.

20 Now to the one who can, according to his power which is operating in us, do more than superabundantly beyond all the things we ask or conceive, 21 to him be the glory by means of the congregation and by means of Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

I, therefore, the prisoner in 4 I, therefore, the prisoned walk [the] Lord, entreat you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with complete lowliness of mind and mildness, with bear witness to in [the] Lord, that good news about the unfathomable long-suffering, putting up with one another in love, 3 earnestly endeavoring to observe the oneness of the spirit in the uniting bond of peace. 4 One body there is, and one spirit, even as you were called in the one hope to which you were called; 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism: 6 one God and Father of all [persons], who is over all and through all and in all.

7 Now to each one of us undeserved kindness was given according to how the Christ measured out the free gift. 8 Wherefore he says: "When he ascended on high he carried away captives: he gave gifts [in] men." 9 Now the expression "he ascended," what does it mean but that he also descended into the lower regions, that is, the earth? 10 The very one that descended is also the one that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might give fullness to all things.

11 And he gave some as apostles. some as prophets, some as evangelizers, some as shepherds and teachers, 12 with a view to the readjustment of the holy ones, for ministerial work, for the building up of the body of the Christ. 13 until we all attain to the oneness in the faith and in the accurate knowledge of the Son of God. to a full-grown man, to the measure of stature that belongs to the fullness of the Christ: 14 in order that we should no longer be babes. tossed about as by waves and carried hither and thither by every wind of teaching by means of the trickery of men, by means of cunning in contriving error, 15 But speaking the truth, let us by love grow up in all things into him who is the head, Christ. 16 From him all the body, by being harmoniously joined together and being made to co-operate through every joint that gives what is needed, according to the functioning of each respective member in due measure, makes for the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

17 This, therefore, I say and

20 But you did not learn the Christ to be so, 21 provided, indeed, that you heard him and were taught by means of him, just as truth is in Jesus, 22 that you should put away the old personality which conforms to your former course of conduct and which is being corrupted according to his deceptive desires; 23 but that you should be made new in the force actuating your mind, 24 and should put on the new personality which was created according to loyalty.

5 Therefore, become imitators of God, as beloved children, 2 and go on walking in love, just as the that belongs to God, because of Christ also loved you and delivered himself up for you as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling odor.

3 Let fornication and uncleanness of every sort or greediness not even be mentioned among you, just as it befits holy people; 4 neither shameful conduct nor foolish talking nor obscene jesting, things which are not becoming, but rather the giving of thanks. 5 For you know this, recognizing it for yourselves, that no fornicator or unclean person or greedy personwhich means being an idolaterhas any inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ and of God.

other in fear of Christ. 22 Let hearts, as to the Christ, 6 not by wives be in subjection to their husbands as to the Lord. 23 because a husband is head of his will of God whole-souled. 7 Be wife as the Christ also is head of the congregation, he being a savior of [this] body. 24 In fact, as the congregation is in subjection to the ever good he may do, will receive Christ, so let wives also be to their this back from Jehovah, whether husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, continue loving your wives. just as the Christ also loved the congregation and delivered up himself for it, 26 that he might sanctify it, cleansing it with the bath of water by means of the word, 27 that he might present the congregation to himself in its splendor. not having a spot or a wrinkle or any of such things, but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 In this way husbands ought to be loving their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself, 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but he feeds and cherishes it, as the Christ also does the congregation, 30 because we are members of his body. 31 "For this reason a man will leave [his] father and [his] mother and he will stick to his wife, and the two will become one flesh." 32 This sacred secret is great. Now I am speaking with respect to Christ and the congregation. 33 Nevertheless, also, let each one of you individually so love his wife as he does himself; on the other hand, the wife should have deep respect for her husband.

> 10 Finally, go on acquiring power in [the] Lord and in the mightiness of his strength. 11 Put on the complete suit of armor from God that you may be able to stand firm against the machinations of the Devil; 12 because we have a wrestling, not against blood and flesh, but against the governments, against the authorities, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the wicked spirit forces in the heavenly places. 13 On this account take up the complete suit of armor from God, that you may be able to resist in the wicked day and, after you have done all things thoroughly, to stand firm.

14 Stand firm, therefore, with Your loins girded about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and with your feet shod with the equipment of the good news of peace. 16 Above all things, take up the large shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the wicked one's Lord, for this is righteous: burning missiles. 17 Also, accept 2 "Honor your father and [your] the helmet of salvation, and the ness and peace.

2 We always thank God when we make mention concerning all of you in our prayers, 3 for we bear incessantly in mind your faithful work and your loving labor and [Your] endurance due to [Your] hope in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father. 4 For we know, brothers loved by God. his choosing of you, 5 because the good news we preach did not turn up among you with speech alone but also with power and with holy spirit and strong conviction, just as you know what sort of men we became to you for your sakes: 6 and you became imitators of us and of the Lord, seeing that you accepted the word under much tribulation with joy of holy spirit, 7 so that you came to be an example to all the believers in Mace·do'ni·a and in A·cha'ia.

8 The fact is, not only has the word of Jehovah sounded forth from you in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A-cha'ia, but in every place your faith toward God has spread abroad, so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves keep reporting about the way we first entered in among you and how you turned to God from [Your] idols to slave for a living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from the heavens, whom he raised up from the dead, namely, Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath which is coming.

It was with working night and day, so as not to put an expensive burden upon any one of you, that we preached the good news of God to you. 10 You are witnesses, God is also, how loyal and righteous and unblamable we proved to be to you believers. 11 In harmony with that you well know how, as a father does his children, we kept exhorting each one of you, and consoling and bearing witness to you, 12 to the end that you should go on walking worthily of God who is calling you to his

HEBREWS

1 God, who long ago spoke on but you are the same, and your ways to our forefathers by means of the prophets, 2 has at the end of these days spoken to us by means of a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the systems of things. 3 He is the reflection of [his] glory and the exact representation of his very being, and he sustains all things by the word of his power; and after he had made a purification for our sins he sat down on the right hand of the Majesty in lofty places. 4 So he has become better than the angels, to the extent that he has inherited a name more excellent than theirs.

5 For example, to which one of the angels did he ever say: "You cape if we have neglected a salvaare my son; I, today, I have become your father"? And again: "I began to be spoken through [our] myself shall become his father, and Lord and was verified for us by he himself will become my son"? 6 But when he again brings his First-born into the inhabited earth, he says: "And let all God's angels worship him."

7 Also, with reference to the angels he says: "And he makes his angels spirits, and his public servants a fiame of fire." 8 But with to come, about which we are speak-reference to the Son: "God is your ing. 6 But a certain witness has throne forever, and [the] scepter given proof somewhere, saying: of your kingdom is the scepter of uprightness. 9 You loved right- in mind, or [the] son of man eousness, and you hated lawless- that you take care of him? 7 You ness. For tions of the earth itself, and the in that he subjected all things to heavens are [the] works of your him God left nothing that is not hands. 11 They themselves will subject to him. Now, though, we perish, but you yourself are to re- do not yet see all things in submain continually; and just like an jection to him; 9 but we behold outer garment they will all grow Jesus, who has been made a little old, 12 and you will wrap them lower than angels, crowned with up just as a cloak, as an outer glory and honor for having suffered garment; and they will be changed, death, that he by God's undeserved

13 But with reference to which one of the angels has he ever said: "Sit at my right hand, until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet"? 14 Are they not all spirits for public service, sent forth to minister for those who are going to inherit salvation?

2 That is why it is necessary for us to pay more than the usual attention to the things heard by us, that we may never drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved to be firm, and every transgression and disobedient act received a retribution in harmony with justice; 3 how shall we estion of such greatness in that it those who heard him, 4 while God joined in bearing witness with signs as well as portents and various powerful works and with distributions of holy spirit according to his

'They shall not enter into my rest," although his works were finished from the founding of the world. 4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day as follows: half of men over the things per-"And God rested on the seventh taining to God, that he may offer day from all his works," 5 and gifts and sacrifices for sins. 2 He again in this place: "They shall is able to deal moderately with the not enter into my rest."

Jesus the Son of God, let us hold onto [our] confessing of [him]. 15 For we have as high priest, not one who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tested in all respects like ourselves, but without sin. 16 Let us, therefore, approach with freeness of speech to the throne of undeserved kindness, that we may obtain mercy and find undeserved kindness for help at the right time.

4 For it is impossible as regards those who have once for all been enlightened, and who have tasted the heavenly free gift, and who have become partakers of holy spirit. 5 and who have tasted the fine word of God and powers of the coming system of things. 6 but who have fallen away, to revive them again to repentance, because they impale the Son of God afresh for themselves and expose him to public shame. 7 For example, the ground that drinks in the rain which often comes upon it, and that then brings forth vegetation suitable to those for whom it is a blessing from God. 8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is rejected and is near to being cursed: and it ends up with being burned.

For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone. 14 But each one is tried by being drawn out and enticed by his own desire. 15 Then the desire, when it has become fertile, gives birth to sin; in turn, sin, when it has been accomplished. brings forth death.

16 Do not be misled, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect present is from above, for it comes down from the Father of the [celestial] lights, and with him there is not a variation of the turning of the shadow. 18 Because he willed it, he brought us forth by the word of truth, for us to be certain first fruits of his creatures.

19 Know this, my beloved brothers. Every man must be swift about hearing, slow about speaking, slow about wrath: 20 for man's wrath does not work out God's righteousness. 21 Hence put away all filthiness and that superfluous thing. badness, and accept with mildness the implanting of the word which is able to save your souls.

22 However, become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves with false reasoning. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, this one is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror. 24 For he looks at himself, and off he goes and immediately forgets what sort of man he is. 25 But he who peers into the perfect law that belongs to freedom and who persists in [it], this [man], because he has become, not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, will be happy in his doing [it].

26 If any man seems to himself to be a formal worshiper and yet does not bridle his tongue, but goes on deceiving his own heart. this man's form of worship is futile. 27 The form of worship that is clean and undefiled from the standpoint of our God and Father people. 13 For the one that does keep oneself without spot from the world.

- 1 My brothers, you are not holding the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, our glory, with acts of favoritism, are you? 2 For, if a man with gold rings on his fingers and in splendid clothing enters into a gathering of you, but a poor [man] in filthy clothing also enters, 3 yet you look with favor upon the one wearing the splendid clothing and say: "You take this seat here in a fine place," and you say to the poor one: "You keep standing," or: "Take that seat there under my footstool," 4 you have class distinctions among yourselves and you have become judges rendering wicked decisions, is that not so?
- 5 Listen, my beloved brothers. God chose the ones who are poor respecting the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he promised to those who love him, did he not? 6 You, though, have dishonored the poor [man]. The rich oppress you, and they drag you before law courts, do they not? 7 They blaspheme the fine name by which you were called, do they not? 8 If, now, you practice carrying out the kingly law according to the scripture: "You must love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing quite well. 9 But if you continue showing favoritism, you are working a sin, for you are reproved by the law as transgressors.

10 For whoever observes all the Law but makes a false step in one point, he has become an offender against them all. II For he who said: "You must not commit adultery," said also: "You must not murder." If, now, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of law. 12 Keep on speaking in such a way and keep on doing in such a way as those do who are going to be judged by the law of a free is this; to look after orphans and not practice mercy will have [his]

2 You gain the knowledge of the inspired expression from God by this: Every inspired expression that confesses Jesus Christ as having come in the flesh originates with God, 3 but every inspired expression that does not confess Jesus does not originate with God. Furthermore, this is the antichrist's [inspired expression] which you have heard was coming, and now it is already in the world.

4 You originate with God, little children, and you have conquered those [persons], because he that is in union with you is greater than he that is in union with the world. 5 They originate with the world; that is why they speak [what proceeds] from the world and the world listens to them. 6 We originate with God. He that gains the knowledge of God listens to us; he that does not originate with God does not listen to us. This is how we take note of the inspired expression of truth and the inspired expression of error.

7 Beloved ones, let us continue loving one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born from God and gains the knowledge of God. 8 He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love. 9 By this the love of God was made manifest in our case, because God sent forth his only-begotten Son God, and everyone who loves the into the world that we might gain one that caused to be born loves life through him. 10 The love is him who has been born from that 19 And I saw the wild beast and bright, clean, fine linen, for the the kings of the earth and their fine linen stands for the righteous armies gathered together to wage the war with the one seated on the horse and with his army. 20 And the wild beast was caught, and along with it the false prophet that performed in front of it the signs with which he misled those who received the mark of the wild beast and those who render worship to its image. While still alive, they both were hurled into the fiery lake that burns with sulphur. 21 But the rest were killed off with the long sword of the one seated on the horse, which [sword] proceeded out of his mouth, And all the birds were filled from the fleshy parts of them.

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven with the down out of heaven with the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he seized the dragon, the original serpent, who one knows but he himself, 13 and is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. 3 And shut [it] and sealed [it] over him, of God. 14 Also, the armies that that he might not mislead the sand years were ended. After these things he must be let loose for a little while.

15 Now the one who was speaking with me was holding as a measure a golden reed, that he fruits each month. And the leaves might measure the city and its gates and its wall. 16 And the city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs; its length and breadth and height are equal. 17 Also, he measured its wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to a man's measure, at the same time an angel's. 18 Now the structure of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold like clear glass. 19 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with every sort of precious stone: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chal·ced'o nv. the fourth emerald. 20 the fifth sar'do nyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrys'o lite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrys'o prase, the eleventh hyacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21 Also, the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates was made of one pearl. And the broad way of the city was pure gold, as transparent glass.

22 And I did not see a temple in it, for Jehovah God the Almighty is its temple, also the Lamb [is]. 23 And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon to shine upon it, for the glory of God lighted it up, and its lamp was the Lamb. 24 And the nations will walk by means of its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. 25 And its gates will not this scroll, for the appointed time be closed at all by day, for night is near. 11 He that is doing un-will not exist there. 26 And they righteousness, let him do unrightwill bring the glory and the honor eousness still; and let the filthy one of the nations into it. 27 But any- be made filthy still; but let the

Genesis 1:20 — "souls"

(υΕ), neph'esh, Hebrew; ψυχή, psy·khē', Greek; a'ni·ma, Latin)

In the Hebrew Scriptures, we have succeeded in consistently rendering the Hebrew word neph'esh as "soul." In each case it proves understandable in the light of its context. The use of this one Hebrew word in many different contexts helps us to ascertain the main or basic idea inherent in the word as the Bible writers used it, namely, that (1) it is a person, an individual, or a lower animal, or, (2) it is the life that a person or animal enjoys as such. This is absolutely different from the pagan ideas of what the ancient Egyptians, Babylonians, Greeks and Romans called a "soul." By studying over the context of the Hebrew word neph'esh in its occurrences the investigator can learn distinguishing features about the soul in its true meaning.

Genesis 5:22, 24 — "the [true] God"

This is the English translation of the Hebrew expression האלהים, ha-El·o·him', namely, the Hebrew title El·o·him': which is the plural number of the word El·o'ah and which means "God" when applied to the Creator Jehovah, preceded by the Hebrew definite article ha.

 $El \cdot o \cdot him'$  as applied to the Creator Jehovah does not mean that there are a number of gods in this one divinity but that this word El.ohim' is merely in the plural number of excellence or of majesty, we reas edited and enlarged by the late E. Kautzsch and revised in its second English edition by A. E. Cowley

"The Various Uses of the Pluralform," it says, on pages 398, 399, in paragraph q:

"The pluralis excellentiae or maiestatis . . . is properly a variety of the abstract plural, since it sums up the several characteristics belonging to the idea, besides possessing the secondary sense of an That the Hebrew plural word intensification of the original idea. It is thus closely related to the plurals of amplification . . . which are mostly found in poetry. So especially אלהים Godhead, God (to be distinguished from the numerical plural gods, Exodus 12:12.&c.). fer to Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar | The supposition that אלהים is to be regarded as merely a remnant of earlier polytheistic views (that is. as originally only a numerical pluand reprinted photographically in | ral) is at least highly improbable, Great Britain at the University and, moreover, would not explain Press, Oxford, in 1949, from cor- the analogous plurals (see below). rected sheets of the second edition. That the language has entirely re-In section 124 under the heading jected the idea of numerical plurality in אלהום (whenever it denotes | Numbers 22:10; 23:27. one God), is proved especially by its being almost invariably joined with a singular attribute . . . , for example, אלהים צדיק Psalm 7:10, &c. Hence אלהים may have been used originally not only as a numerical but also as an abstract plural (corresponding to the Latin numen, and our Godhead), and, like other abstracts of the same kind, have been transferred to a concrete single god (even of the heathen)."

In support of our rendering into English as "the [true] God," we refer to the above Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar, under section 126, entitled "Determination by Means of the Article," and paragraph d on pages 404, 405, which says: "The article is, generally speaking, employed to determine a substantive wherever it is required by Greek and English; thus: . . (d) When terms applying to whole classes are restricted (simply by usage) to particular individuals . . . or things, for example, in adversary, השמו the adversary. Satan; הבעל lord, הבעל Baal as proper name of the god; הארם the (first) man, Adam; האל or האל ho theos, the one true God (compare also ho Khristos in the New Testament); . . ." And section 141, entitled "The Noun-clause," says, in paragraph f, on page 453: "To God; . . ." For the reader's quick reference we list below the verses where the Hebrew expression ha-El·o·him', as applying to the Creator Jehovah. occurs:

Genesis 15:2 - A do nay' - "Lord"

This Hebrew word  $A \cdot do \cdot nay'$  is in the verse cited above, where it the name Yeho-wah' ("Jehovah") in the primitive Hebrew text. (See below on this same page under Psalm 69:6, the combination "Genesis 18:3 — 'Jehovah.'") We A.do.nay Yeho.wih' tseba.oth' have therefore restored the name "Jehovah" to those 134 passages, and thus reduced the number of occurrences of A.do.nay to 298 times.

occurs 432 times in the Masoretic precedes the divine name to protext (M). It is applied exclusively duce the combination A.do.nay to Jehovah God. However, there Yeho wih', which is translated were 134 passages in M where the "Lord Jehovah." (From Psalm 71:5, Jewish Sopherim claim that they 16 forward "Sovereign Lord Jehosubstituted this word A.do.nay' for vah.") This combination occurs 280 times by itself.

Besides this, beginning with ("Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies") occurs 16 times, as follows: Psalm 69:6; Isaiah 3:15; 10:23, 24; 22:5, 12, 14, 15; 28:22; Jeremiah 2:19; 46:10, 10; 49:5; 50:25, 31; The first occurrence of A.do.nay' Amos 9:5 ("of the armies").

Beginning with Psalm 68:20, A.do.nay' follows the divine name, to form the combination Yeho wih' A do nay' ("Jehovah the Sovereign Lord"), in five passages, as follows:

Psalms 68:20; 109:21; 140:7; 141:8; Habakkuk 3:19.

Following the later practice of the Jewish rabbis in reading A.do.nay' instead of the divine name Yoho wah', the later copyists of the Greek LXX substituted the anarthrous Greek title Ky'ri·os ("Lord; Master") for the Hebrew tetragrammaton יהוה, which had been transliterated into the Greek text. all other server are stored 786 -

Hebrew expression 11787 ha-A·don', prefixing of the definite article this being the title  $A \cdot d\bar{o}n'$  ("Lord; before the title  $a \cdot d\bar{o}n'$  limits the Master") preceded by the Hebrew application of the title to Jehovah definite article ha. Although there God. (See Gesenius' Hebrew Gram-

In addition to the above, we call attention to the following places where the Jewish Sopherim claim they altered the primitive Hebrew text to read El.o.him' ("God") instead of Yeho wah' ("Jehovah"): Psalms 14:1, 2, 5; 53:1, 2, 4, 5.

A change similar to the latter was claimed to have been made by the Jewish Sopherim in 2 Samuel 5:19-25; 6:9-17; 1 Chronicles 13:12; 14:10, 11, 14, 16; 16:1. However, in these places we have followed the reading of the Hebrew text as published by Rudolf Kittel and his survivors, A. Alt. O. Eissfeldt and P. Kahle. (See The Hebrew Text on page 19 of the Foreword of Volume I of the New World Translation of the Hebrew Scriptures.)

For another rendering of the Isaiah 3:17, 18; 4:4; 6:1, 8, 11; 7:14, Hebrew text to read "Jehovah" we refer the reader to Zechariah 6:8. where the final yod ("i") in the Hebrew word is understood to be an abbreviation of the divine name instead of meaning "my." This may also be the case in Ezekiel 43:3; Habakkuk 3:19; Zephaniah 2:12: Zechariah 11:10 (once for "my" and once for "I"): 14:5. But the reverse appears to be the case in Judges 19:18, where evidently "my" was intended rather than the divine name.

Matthew 2:20 - "soul"

(ψυχή, psy·khē', Greek; υτι, neph'esh, Hebrew)

Throughout our translation we have consistently rendered the Greek word psy.khē' (Hebrew, neph'esh) as "soul." It will be found that this rendering makes sense in each case. This uniform rendering of psy-khe by the same English word in all cases proves very enlightening as to how the ancients used that word, how the inspired writers understood that word and what properties they ascribed to it. Below we give a list of some renderings of the 102 occurrences of the word psy-khe (neph'esh, soul), grouping them under several headings to show the various ideas attached to the word.

A BIBLE FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY

The Bible is a Book for everyone. As the psalmist said: "Your word is a lamp to my foot, and a light to my roadway." (Ps. 119:105) Is every member of your family properly equipped? All can be! The New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures, Regular edition, is so moderately priced that no one need be without his personal copy. And it is designed for regular use. This complete Bible, bound in a gold-embossed green vinyl cover, is only $1 for each copy. This edition of the New World Translation is also available in Dutch, Italian, Portuguese and Spanish, at $1 a copy.

A DELUXE EDITION

In addition to the Regular edition, there is, in English, a Deluxe edition of the New World Translation. This comes with a fiexible cover in either black or maroon, gold edging on pages. Sent postpaid, anywhere, for $3 a copy.

LARGE-PRINT EDITION

This volume contains the original edition of the New World Translation, all six volumes in one. Its large, clear type makes Bible reading easy. It is an excellent edition for careful study, being complete with illuminating footnotes, valuable cross-references, an extensive Appendix, helpful forewords to both the Hebrew Scriptures and the Christian Greek Scriptures, maps and illustrations. Measures 7¼" x 5" x 2¼", 3,648 pages, flexible dark-green cover. Sent postpaid, anywhere, $4.50 a copy.

"ALL SCRIPTURE IS INSPIRED OF GOD AND BENEFICIAL"

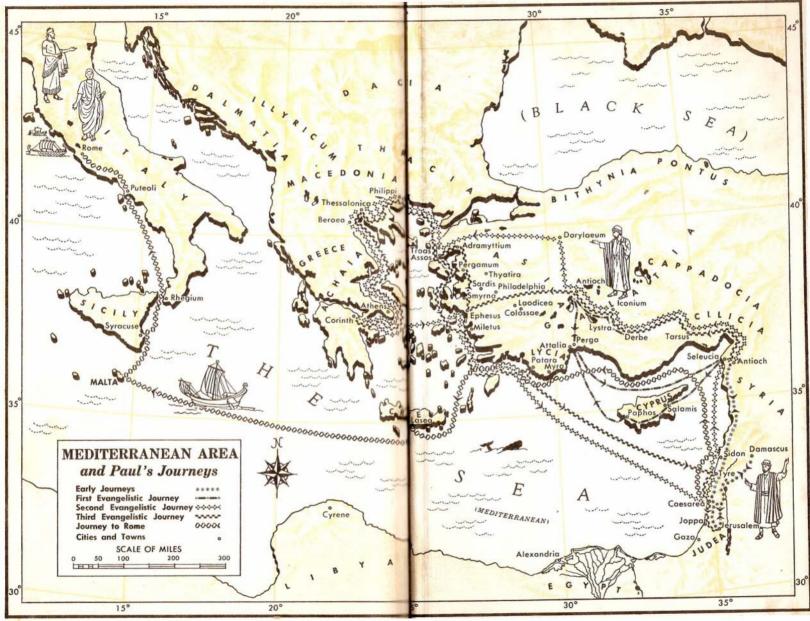

Now you can prove to yourself that the Bible is the most modern book available today. You can learn how it is the most practical guide to modern living. The 352-page book "All Scripture Is Inspired of God and Beneficial" examines the Holy Scriptures from many viewpoints. In Part One, each of the Bible's sixty-six books is examined as to its source, its authenticity and purpose and its power for benefiting you today. Included is a fascinating summary of the contents of each Bible book. You will learn how God inspired men to write His Word and how the Bible has come down to us over so many centuries without losing textual integrity. Part II contains special studies on the inspired Scriptures and their background, dealing with such topics as "A Visit to the Promised Land," "Measuring Events in the Stream of Time," and "Archaeology Supports the Inspired Record." Included are maps, illustrations and many informative charts, such as "Main Events of Jesus' Earthly Sojourn" and "Chart of Outstanding Historical Dates." Dark-blue, hardbound cover. Sent postpaid, anywhere, for $1 a copy.
